Meany Backs Rail Unions

AFL-CIO Chief Sees Anti-Labor Pattern

CHICAGO (AP) — President George Meany of the AFL-CIO has pledged full and complete support of the nation's railroad unions in their fight with the carriers over featherbedding charges. "You are not in this battle alone," he told an estimated 3,000 cheering rail union leaders and rank-and-file workers at a rally Thursday night billed as labor's answer to the railroads' charges. The nation's railroads served notice on their unions last Monday that they want to eliminate certain railroad jobs they consider unnecessary.

The formal proposals, which will be negotiated during pending contract talks, followed a series of railroad newspaper advertisements charging that the work agreements governing railroad work are antiquated and cost the carriers an unnecessary 500 million dollars a year.

The heads or other officers of the 21 rail unions attended the rally. Demonstrators paraded through the auditorium with placards that accused management of a "brainwashing campaign" against their workers.

Meany said he sees a parallel between the railroad dispute and the steel strike, saying, "It was known for a long time in the steel dispute that a strike was coming."

He accused the railroads of using a high-powered publicity campaign to discredit their workers in advance of negotiations "and render impotent the trade union movement."

"This is one battle in the overall war against American labor. There seems to be a determination by big business to break down the trade union movement. The fight against the railroad unions is a fight against all American labor," he said.

Thug's 'Gun' Proves To Be Spigot Handle

CLEVELAND (AP) — A Cleveland shop owner, believing the man in the back seat of his car was holding a gun to his back, drove around for two hours Thursday before subduing his captor. The gun turned out to be the handle from a water faucet.

Neither Anthony J. Russo, 40, nor his woman companion, Mrs. Anna Mae Kleinfeld, 34, was injured.

In nearby Willoughby, police held a man who identified himself as Douglas W. McMeans, 29, of Trinity, Ala.

Russo told police McMeans purchased a suit at his shop on Euclid Ave. and then asked the shopkeeper if he would drive him home. Russo agreed.

En route, Russo stopped to pick up Mrs. Kleinfeld, a friend he had promised to drive downtown.

At this point, McMeans, in the back seat, pressed the faucet handle into his back, Russo said, and threatened to kill both him and Mrs. Kleinfeld if they didn't take him where he wanted.

After driving to Willoughby, Russo said he needed gas. When the car stopped, the shopkeeper jumped into the back seat. With help from the gas station attendant, McMeans was subdued.

New Yorker Is Handed Stiff Penalty; Sheriff Gets Car

Leonard Posner, 22, New York N. Y., was placed on five years probation Wednesday in Pickaway County Common Pleas Court.

Posner changed his plea of innocent to guilty on charges of illegal possession of narcotics.

Stiff terms of probation were issued Posner. He is not to use or have narcotics in his possession unless for medical reasons and administered by a registered physician.

He was committed to Lexington Hospital, a Kentucky hospital for treatment of narcotics users, and is to remain there until hospital officials believe he is cured.

IF POSNER leaves the hospital before he is given a "clean bill of health," his act of leaving will be considered a violation of his probation.

Posner is not to leave the continental United States unless he has the approval of the local court. He is presently awaiting transportation to Kentucky by County Sheriff Charles H. Radcliff.

News Briefs

NEW YORK (AP) — A slight edge to the upside developed early this afternoon in an irregular stock market. Trading was fairly active.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The steel strike today entered its 115th day with peace talks at a standstill, and not a sign from any direction that a settlement might be near.

The nation—and the deadlocked industry and union negotiators—still awaited the Supreme Court's decision whether to sustain or knock down a Taft-Hartley law injunction ordering the 500,000 striking steel workers back to their jobs for 80 days.

HOT SPRINGS, Va. (AP)—The United Steelworkers Union is much the stronger power in the record 115-day steel strike, the head negotiator for the steel companies contended today.

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — With friends rallying to his support, Maj. Pedro Diaz Lanz posted $5,000 bond and was released from county jail pending his extradition hearing on Cuban charges of murder and attempted murder.

CANTON, Ohio (AP)—Republic Steel Corp., charging that striking steelworkers are interfering with non-union supervisors and company officials entering the Canton plant, seek an injunction in Common Pleas Court today.

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—State aid for additional schoolrooms, totaling $7,843,956, was approved Thursday by the Ohio Controlling Board. Thirteen school districts are affected.

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower never had a golf club in his hands from the start of the invasion of Europe until the defeat of Germany, the White House says.

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The Catholic Church-owned public school in Kalida, Putnam County, accused by about 20 parents of teaching religious doctrine and practices, was cleared Thursday by a state official who visited the school recently.

NEW YORK (AP)—NBC and CBS report mail and telegram sentiment in favor of continuance of television quiz shows.

NEW YORK (AP)—Thirty-five policemen stationed in the Bronx, which has many Spanish speaking residents, Thursday night embarked on a 16-week course in conversational Spanish.

mobile convertible, was placed in County possession and the title was awarded the County Sheriff's Department for its use.

State law allows counties to assume ownership of motor vehicles used in committing a crime. Sentencing Judge William Ammer said he believed the Sheriff's Department needed the auto more than any other county department.

Posner was arrested in July by the Sheriff's Department along with a companion, Lemuel Carter, alias Charles Matthews, in Posner's convertible near Tarleton.

Both men seemed under the influence of narcotics. The day following their arrest, Deputy Sheriff Dwight Radcliff found packages of heroin in the car plus other items with heroin traces on them.

POSNER AND Carter were placed under $50,000 bond in Circleville Municipal Court, the highest bond ever set in the county court.

Both men were indicted for illegal possession of narcotics by the special session of the April term of the County Grand Jury, which met August 24.

Carter was convicted of the charge by a common pleas court petit jury several weeks ago. He was sentenced to two to 15 years in the Ohio State Penitentiary, Columbus.

Judge Ammer said Carter's cohort, Posner, was placed on probation because he only had one previous narcotics offense on record.

Carter had two narcotics and two larceny offenses on record. He said that if New York police and court officials had properly supervised Posner the first time he was placed on probation he wouldn't be here today.

Judge Ammer also criticized the lenient narcotics laws in New York, while Ohio is proud of having the stiffest narcotic laws in the nation.

POSNER WAS warned by the court that if he violated any of the terms of his probation he wouldn't get a second chance.

Posner returned here from New York, where he had departed after meeting his bond. His original $50,000 bond was reduced to $15,000.

He was represented by Harry Margulis, Ashville, and Tom A. Renick, 114½ N. Court St. Margulis plead for the court's mercy on Posner stating his parents had died when the lad was young leaving him considerable money.

He said that since Posner's inheritance his friends had taken advantage of him and his loneliness. Margulis asked for another chance for Posner. The native New Yorker also was represented by a Mr. Ginsberg, a New York attorney.

The FBI report then was turned over to Mississippi. But the 378-page report, which reportedly identified the men involved, was not considered by the local grand jury.

WASHINGTON (AP)—A publicity man for the Hess Bros. department store in Allentown, Pa., says the firm spent thousands of dollars to get "plugs" for the store in television, radio and newspaper columns.

The assertion came from Max Levine, who said that public relations firms were paid to make such arrangements.

Levine testified Thursday before the House subcommittee investigating TV quiz show fixing.

Without giving details, Levine singled out NBC's television programs "Today" featuring Dave Garroway and the "Tonight" show and the CBS Garry Moore and "Person-to-Person" programs.

Levine said columnists who mentioned the store included Bob Considine of the Hearst Syndicate, Stanton Delaplane of the McNaught Syndicate, Earl Wilson of the Hall Syndicate, and Hal Boyle of The Associated Press.

Kennedy Strikes California Gold

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Sen. John F. Kennedy struck political gold in four days of prospecting in California.

Top Democratic leaders, including Gov. Edmund G. (Pat) Brown, generally agree about that today.

But his very success sharpens the dilemma that now confronts the Massachusetts senator. Should he enter the winner-take-all California primary next June and go for its glittering 81 votes in the Democratic presidential nominating convention?

The question pivots on another: Is he strong enough to beat Brown?

Some California Democrats say he is. Others are Dubious. Kennedy himself said he would be "reluctant" to enter the primary. This, in spite of the compliments echoing here as Kennedy headed into Oregon today.

"He had a big success," said Brown. "I admire him very much."

But the governor said in an interview it has not caused him to reassess his own position. He says almost all the party leaders in the state want him to go to the convention as its "favorite son."

"A highly successful trip," said State Chairman William Munnell. "He made many, many friends in California."

"The most effective campaigning he's ever done in the state," said Paul Ziffren, national committeeman.

Kennedy drew big crowds at almost every stop. They grew visibly warmer as he spoke. The receptions at the University of California at Los Angeles and the University of Southern California were little short of spectacular.

At UCLA, 1,900 people filled every seat of the auditorium. Hundreds milled around outside. When he emerged, a student called out, "come back again and speak to the 1,000 who couldn't get in."

Without advance publicity from the campus newspaper, and speaking in the afternoon well after classroom hours, Kennedy filled almost as big an auditorium at USC. "I'm still a Republican," a pretty co-ed told him, "but I think you're marvelous."

At the fund-raising Jefferson-Jackson day dinner, extra tables had to be put up. The tariff was $100 a plate. Kennedy didn't start delivering the main speech until after 11 p.m.—but got an ovation. Sitting in the audiences, and listening to the word-of-mouth afterward, a correspondent discovered two things:

1. Women get starry-eyed over the boyish-looking Bostonian. They either sat looking mesmerized as he spoke or murmured, "Terrific. Cute. Wonderful."

2. His youthful appearance may be his greatest handicap.

"He looks awfully young. Is he really 42?" people commented. After this experience, why would Kennedy be "reluctant" to enter the California primary?

Brown listed two reasons. "If he comes in," the governor said, "Hubert Humphrey almost certainly would have to come in." He said the Minnesota senator has "considerable strength" in the Democratic clubs in California.

"Also, even if he won, it might be a Pyrrhic victory." (Pyrrhus was a Greek king who won a battle but lost so many troops it almost finished him.) "It would be a tough fight and the wounds wouldn't be healed by the time of the election," Brown said.

There is still a third consideration.

Californians say Brown is popular. The primary comes June 7, almost on the eve of the national convention. If Kennedy lost in California, the psychological impact could very well kill his chances.

Negro Minister Leads

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — A Negro minister who teaches at Knoxville College led in a five-way race for a seat on the city school board in Thursday's election.

The Rev. Frank R. Gordon polled 4,158 votes and will meet the incumbent, Robert Ray.

Stiff Federal Law Viewed as Not Enough

WASHINGTON (AP)—Dr. Frank Stanton, president of the Columbia Broadcasting System, said today that the broadcasting industry must itself shoulder the job of correcting the ills revealed by TV scandals.

As the windup witness before a House subcommittee investigating television quiz shows and other practices, Stanton declared: "We believe that legislation is no cure-all for these ills and that the primary responsibility lies with the broadcasting industry itself. CBS is moving forward in that conviction."

Stanton did not go all the way with the position taken earlier by Robert E. Kintner, president of the National Broadcasting Co., who advocated enactment of legislation making it a federal crime to rig TV quiz programs.

He told the subcommittee that while such a step might be desirable, legislation of itself is not a sure preventative "as is proven by the continuation of crime despite stringent criminal laws."

Stanton's testimony also reinforced the CBS policy placed in effect last month banning all big-money quiz and giveaway shows from the network.

"We were forced to the conclusion that we could never be sure about these programs as presently conceived," he testified. "There is always the danger that these programs may be rigged in one way or another."

Stanton said he was completely unaware of irregularities in CBS quiz shows until August of last year.

"When gossip about quiz shows in general came to my attention, I was assured by our television network people that these shows were completely above criticism of this kind," the CBS chief said. "With benefit of hindsight, it is now clear that I should have gone further."

Stanton said CBS, which already has moved against what it termed misleading practices such as canned laughter and applause, now is preparing to go even further in this direction.

He said it is also giving much thought to advertising commercials.

Five of the subcommittee's nine members took issue with the scope of Kintner's proposed new law. Any legislation, they said, should go much farther and should strike at finagling and dishonesty in every phase of the business.

Typical of their comment in separate interviews was the reaction of Rep. Walter Rogers (D-Tex.).

"There should be a penalty on anybody who perpetrates a fraud on the airwaves, and that includes advertising," Rogers said.

2 Jets Scramble; So Do 144 Eggs

CLEVELAND (AP) — Two jet planes and 144 eggs. Mix them and what do you get?

Twelve dozen broken eggs. That's what happened Thursday when the jets, streaking out from Youngstown Air Force Base on a false alarm to aid a bomber, broke the sound barrier. The sonic boom sprayed East Side homes and suburbs and caused the eggs to tumble off the shelves at a poultry market.

2 Fliers, Trucker Die as Jet Crashes

TACOMA, Wash. (AP)—A Navy jet training plane faltered on a takeoff from nearby McChord Air Force Base Thursday and side-slipped to a fiery end in a base parking lot. Three men were killed.

The dead were Marine Lt. Cls. Charles E. Kollman, 39, and John Skoric, 41, both attached to the Continental Air Defense Command, Colorado Springs, Colo., and John H. Lundeen, 28, a Seattle truck driver whose moving vehicle was hit by flying debris.

Kollman, from New Matamoros, Ohio, and Skoric, from Taconite, William L. Bigger, 20, of Blakes-Minn., were en route from McChord to Colorado Springs.

Community Fund 'Over the Top'

The 1959 Pickaway County Community Fund campaign is a complete success!

New total collections, announced today by campaign chairman Robert Burton, show total money collected to date to be $31,970, or $1,970 more than the $30,000 goal.

In making the announcement, Burton heaped praise on county residents and volunteer workers for putting the campaign "over the top" for the fourth consecutive year.

The community fund supports the county-wide activities of the Red Cross, Salvation Army, Girl Scouts, Boy Scouts and Youth Canteen.

Attainment of the goal assures continued operation of these vital agencies throughout 1960.

BUDGET FOR the five agencies for 1960 is $30,000. Of that total $14,670 will go to the Red Cross, $4,200 to the Boy Scouts, $3,850 to the Youth Canteen, $3,500 to the Salvation Army and $3,000 to the Girl Scouts.

The campaign was headed by Burton. Division captains were James Carr, Industrial; Ed Ebert, Business; Charles Walters, County; T. D. Harmon, Special Groups, and Mrs. Walter Heine and Mrs. L. S. Mader Jr., Residential.

Publicity was handled by Richard Farmer; Preston Cook was in charge of materials; Gordon Fraser was training chairman.

Officers of the Pickaway County Community Fund are Mrs. Karl Mason, president; L. D. Varble, vice president; E. G. Grigg, secretary, and Eugene Wilson, treasurer.

Homeless Boy Fools Police; He Is Actually a She, Age 20

GOLDEN, Colo. (AP) — A 20-year-old brunette donned feminine garb today for the first time after four months of masquerading through jails and jobs as a homeless boy.

Barbara Ann Malpass of Glenmont, N.Y., convinced prisoners and officers alike that she was Charles Richard Williams, 16, of Shoshone, Wyo. She was booked under that name at the Jefferson County Jail on Aug. 2.

"We were considering trying to place her in Boys Town, Neb.," sighed Undersheriff Lew Hawley. The brown-eyed girl is 5 feet, 8 inches tall and weighs 129 pounds. In her guise as a boy, she wore her hair in a duck-tail style.

The hoax came to light when Deputy Sheriff Sam Teague, with whose family Barbara was staying after her release from jail, found an incomplete letter to the girl's parents. He determined from the letter's contents that his house guest was a girl.

"I just can't understand it," said Sheriff Art Wermuth.

"I've checked into it thoroughly and she went through the normal shakedown procedure to discover anything concealed on her person."

Wermuth said Barbara was arrested July 21 at Anderson, Ind., and told of burglarizing a Jefferson County house.

A local deputy took the girl in custody at Anderson and returned her here. When officers were unable to link her with any crimes—she was released. Because she said she had no parents, the Teague family gave her lodging.

Sheriff Wermuth said she told of running away from home earlier this year. She posed as a boy "because it was more convenient," said Wermuth.

He said Barbara's parents refused her custody.

Wermuth termed the girl a "talented artist, very intelligent."

"We think, possibly with some psychiatric help, that she will turn out all right."

Barbara is continuing to live with the Teague family.

First Cold Snap Starts To Taper Off

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The season's coldest weather and biggest snow storm gave a wintry touch to the nation's mid-section today but it appeared the worst was just about over.

Below zero temperatures and snow up to 15 inches made it feel and look like mid-winter in some northern border areas.

The effects of the storm were felt as far south as the middle Gulf region and southern Texas. Areas in extreme northern Arkansas reported snow flurries.

Northern Wisconsin and Upper Michigan bore the brunt of the snow barrage Thursday and during the night. Fifteen inches of snow covered the ground at Marquette, Mich., on Lake Superior, with nearly a foot at Wausau, Wis.

But the storm appeared losing its punch as it moved eastward, with snow diminishing.

The storm was blamed for at least seven deaths, most of them in traffic accidents.

Evelyn Rudie's Jaunt Is Studied by Police

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Was 9-year-old Evelyn Rudie's cross-country jet flight a runaway or a publicity stunt?

Los Angeles police will try to learn the answer when she returns from Washington, Police Chief William H. Parker said Thursday. He said the young actress will be questioned by a juvenile officer.

A city ordinance makes it a misdemeanor to give police a false report.

4-H Advisory Group Alters Rules for '60

The 4-H Advisory Council met last night to consider future policies for the improvement of 4-H club work in Pickaway County.

The council made a complete revision of the 4-H honor club system for 1960. The scoring system will be changed in several ways and the new score sheets will be available later this month. The group also decided to stop picking one top club and give banners to the best six clubs in agriculture and home economics.

The future 4-H camp site was discussed with the decision to remain at Tar Hollow but to investigate possibilities of building a new camp site if necessary.

The council also recommended several policies for Mrs. Herman Hines to convey to the State 4-H Advisory Council in Columbus next week.

President of the 4-H council is Hoyt Martin. Others present at this meeting were Mrs. Herman Hines, Tony Garrett, Loring Leist, Louis Drummond, George Haughn, Mrs. Berman Wertman, Mrs. Frank Baum, Weta Mae Leist, Clarence J. Cunningham and George Hamrick.

Two Accidents Probed by Police

Local police investigated two accidents here yesterday afternoon.

Zena D. Grant, 48, Ashville, was slightly injured when her car was involved in an accident with an auto driven by Susane Phillips, 29, of 115 Seyfert Ave.

The accident was at 3:29 p. m. at N. Court St. and Seyfert Ave. Patrolman Donald Adams said the Grant auto struck the Phillips car in the rear.

Richard Jeffries, 15, of 114 Wilson Ave., was treated for shock when his motorbike crashed attempting to miss a dog in the street. The accident was at Atwater Ave. at 5:30 p. m.

Nurse's Favoritism Is Understandable

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP)—No doubt about it, the four-day-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Boyer is getting more attention than the other babies in Mercy Hospital's maternity ward.

His oldest sister, 19-year-old Sharon, is a junior in the hospital's school of nursing and she is assigned to the maternity department in her current training program.

Other nurses' kid her about spoiling her brother and Sharon readily admits she's a bit partial. Her new brother weighed in Tuesday at seven pounds, 14 ounces. So far, his parents haven't picked the name.

Besides Sharon and the newcomer, they have two other daughters and six other boys.

Court Finds Driver Guilty Of Intoxication

A Pickaway County Common Pleas Court petit jury yesterday convicted Ronald G. Matthews, Harrisburg, of driving a motor vehicle while under the influence of intoxicants (OMVI).

The jury reached a verdict at 12:15 p. m. after deliberating 45 minutes. This was the second case in less than a week that a precedent was set in the local court and probably in Ohio.

It was the first case in the presiding Judge William Ammer's knowledge that a person, charged with a crime, ever defended himself in a jury trial.

Judge Ammer said there are several cases where persons have defended themselves before the court, but not before a 12-member jury.

THE CHARGE of OMVI is considered a misdemeanor and therefore persons accused of such crimes are not afforded court appointed defense counsels.

Only persons under charges of felonies are furnished court appointed attorneys if they are unable to obtain any due to their financial status.

Matthews was arrested for OMVI on the night of Nov. 14, 1958. He was headed north on U. S. Route 23 when he made a left hand turn onto old Route 3 into Harrisburg.

The Matthews auto collided with a car driven south by Carl Speakman. Both men were injured, but Matthews was released from Mt. Carmel Hospital the same night of the accident.

Speakman is still disabled from the accident. Matthews refused to take any type test to determine alcohol - blood content and denied being intoxicated in testimony yesterday.

Matthews entered a plea of guilty at preliminary hearing in Circleville Municipal Court, but changed his plea to innocent before a sentence was pronounced.

ARRESTING officer, Ohio State Patrolman Raymond Smith, London Post, testified that he smelled alcohol on Matthews' breath and that he had bloodshot eyes.

Speakman, his wife, Lamar Gosard, London Post radio operator, and David Goddin, Grove City emergency squad member who took both Matthews and Speakman

to the hospital, all testified they believed Matthews was under the influence of intoxicating liquor.

Matthews put his wife on the stand who said he was not intoxicated. Matthews took the stand next and said he had stopped at a few places after work and had several drinks.

He said he then came home and ate dinner before leaving his home a little after 9 p. m.

Members of the jury who reached a unanimous decision were: Aulton E. Carter, Williamsport; Robert Schumm, 203 N. Scioto St.; Mrs. George Fissell, 705 N. Pickaway St.;

MRS. WILSON Wood, 117 Dunmore Road; Berlin Noble, 452 Stella Ave.; John Seibel, Route 1, Mt. Sterling; Glenn Hay, Route 2, Ashville; Mrs. O. J. Ward, 52 Walnut St.

M. S. Rinehart, 121 S. Scioto St.; Lewis Holderman, 609 N. Court St.; W. G. Koch, Route 2, and John S. Caldwell, Route 3.

Ohio Couple Hopes To Get British Baby

CRESTVIEW (AP) — Mr. and Mrs. Max Thrum tuned in a radio newscast and a story from London telling of an English couple that hoped to give away their expected baby caught their attention.

It seemed just the answer to plans they had been making to adopt a playmate for their 3-year-old daughter, Sandra Gail, especially since the British couple wanted Americans to take their child.

Thrum placed a transatlantic phone call to The Associated Press bureau at London and obtained the address of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Winkley, the couple looking for American foster parents for their yet unborn baby. A call to the Winkleys followed.

"We didn't reach any definite agreement," Thrum said. "But they seemed to be fine people and we do hope we can work it out to get the baby. They told us we were the first persons to contact them."

Thrum said he didn't plan to go to London, but would correspond with the Winkleys and try to reach an adoption agreement.

"We aren't interested in paying a king's ransom, of course. We aren't rich. But if the Winkleys' offer is bona fide, we certainly hope we can get the baby," Thrum said.

Thrum, 36, operates a music store and a monument firm. Originally from Fremont, Ohio, he has lived in Crestview the past 18 years. Mrs. Thrum, 38, has a 21-year-old son of a previous marriage.

2 Organizations Help Elderly on Cut-Rate Drugs

WASHINGTON (AP)—Two organizations for retired people said today they are making a cut-rate drug service available to all Americans over 65 years of age—an estimated 15 million persons.

Dr. Ethel Percy Andrus, president of the National Retired Teachers Assn. and the American Assn. of Retired Persons, said this means the aged can obtain medication and pharmaceuticals at a minimum of 25 per cent below regular retail prices if they order from nonprofit drug buying service.

Dr. Andrus called upon pharmacists to extend similar price reductions to persons over 65. She said this would follow the lead taken by the American Medical Assn. in recommending that member physicians reduce fees for patients over 65 living on modest incomes.

It is estimated that about 60 million buffalo roamed the North American continent in the 18th Century.

Ohio System Of Free Press Is Outlined

COLUMBIA, Mo. (AP)—State Sen. Charles A. Mosher of Ohio outlined the free access to all levels of state government enjoyed by the Ohio press in a speech today at the second annual Freedom of Information Conference at the University of Missouri.

Mosher, four-term member of the Ohio Senate and publisher of the Oberlin News-Tribune, said Ohio's government officials, legislators, state and local agencies, and all units of government at all levels work on the principle of "public business is the public's business."

He credited the Ohio Legislative Correspondents Assn. for honorable and responsible operation of that group, which determines those newspapers who may have special privileges in covering the Ohio Senate, House of Representatives and other state offices in the Capitol Building.

Open committee meetings and votes in the Ohio General Assembly were cited as an indication of Ohio's "open door" policy of giving the public the fullest possible report of proceedings.

The established tradition of conducting state legislative business in public is commendable, Mosher said, and such secrecy as exists in some states and even in the U.S. Congress would be unthinkable in Ohio today.

Blind Toledo Man Issued Driver Permit

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP)—A case in Municipal Court today provided a sad commentary on Ohio's method of renewing drivers' licenses.

Wednesday night, Patrolman William Freer arrested 51-year-old Arthur Magrum in a bus station on a charge of being drunk and disorderly.

Checking Magrum's identification, the patrolman found cards showing him to be a member of several societies for the blind and a driver's license issued here last Aug. 20.

Magrum, appearing before Judge George N. Kiroff, said he passed his driver's test in 1953, shortly before he became totally blind in one eye and lost nearly all of his sight in the other. Sitting only eight feet from the judge, Magrum said the jurist appeared as a dim shadow from his left eye.

Magrum said he never had trouble getting his license renewed. The last time he applied, he said, he was carrying his white cane, the mark of a blind person.

Magrum said he does not own a car and uses the license only for identification.

Ad Censorship Will Hurt

Business expenses incurred in the normal conduct of any enterprise have traditionally been construed in America as including all outlays necessary to the continued existence and prosperity of the undertaking. If certain proposals now before the Internal Revenue Service are permitted to stand, this will no longer be true.

Under the new regulations, it will not be possible for an American business or industry, threatened with extinction by cheap imports, to deduct as business expenses the cost of informing the public—or even its own employees—that it is faced with ruin as a result of government policies.

Private enterprise can protect itself against government-imposed adversities only out of profits, says the IRS in a series of continuing rulings which will seriously hamper businesses, trade organizations and anti-bureaucratic activities generally. As is usual in the case of administrative interpretations of nuclear legislation the IRS has liberally interpreted a 1919 statute barring for business deductions "sums of money expended for lobbying purposes, the promotion or defeat of legislation, the exploitation of propaganda, including advertising other than trade advertising, and contributions for campaign expenses."

Under the regulations which are slated to go into effect shortly, the income tax bureau has ruled that it will not allow outlays for advertisements explaining a business group's position on any public matter directly affecting the organization, nor will it permit deductions for dues to trade organizations which act as agents in promoting the aims of their clients.

If these regulations are permitted to stand, the Internal Revenue Service will become an overseer of all business advertising, possessing within its devious channels the sole authority to decide what is "lobbying" and what is "trade advertising."

Complex as they have become, certainly Congress never intended to include in its income tax laws the creation of an advertising censorship board. But that is what the IRS must become if it is to enforce its interpretations of the law.

Every citizen has a stake in the outcome of debate on this matter, because the drain on industrial profits—should industry be required to pay for public service and promotional advertising out of income after taxes—would produce a severe jolt to the economy. Most of the concerns which would be affected pay the maximum 52 per cent corporate tax rate.

Thus for every dollar now spent on a wide range of industrial advertising, two dollars will be required under the Internal Revenue plan. And of course the consumer pays for follies of the government which result in higher industrial costs.

On either count—heavier taxation of industry and all profit making organizations, or government control of an important segment of private enterprise—there is nothing to be gained but further progress toward national socialism. Only Congress has the power to change the wording of its legislation, but many agencies have the assumed power to interpret as they see fit.

When it becomes necessary for Congress to restate laws already on the books to keep intact legislative intent, that is part of the legislative responsibility. Such a need has arisen as a result of a new interpretation of a 40-year-old law.

Mice Do Play if Boss Away

By Hal Boyle

NEW YORK (AP)—"Many a captain of industry often brags, 'I like to feel I have my office so well organized it runs just as efficiently when I'm away as when I'm in it.'"

Actually, of course, he secretly prefers to feel just the opposite—that without the magic of his presence and touch of personal authority the whole place tends to dissolve into chaos.

Well, just what does happen when illness or a necessary business trip temporarily removes the head of the firm from his usual scene of command? How do the office mice play when the boss is away?

Here are a few typical characters you can probably observe in your own office:

1. The chief of staff—He spends half an hour going around the office hawking everyone out. Then he retires to his own office and spends the rest of the day sailing paper airplanes around the room and dreaming about how nice life would be if he were always the boss.

2. The boss's secretary—She groans inwardly. She knows all the ambitious little subordinates will show up with a fistful of letters for her to type—so the boss, on his return, will know how hard they worked while he was away.

3. The gossip—He goes around spreading the rumor that the boss isn't away on a business trip at all, but is probably larking in Las Vegas with the wife of one of his neighbors.

4. The bookie—He tours the office making bets on whether the boss will have bags under his eyes his first day back on the job.

5. The two-Martini, two-hour lunch man—He has four Martinis and a four-hour lunch, on the theory that a fellow should work twice as hard when the boss is away.

6. The homebody—At 9:15 he phones his wife. At 5:15 in the afternoon he is still helping her worry about how to fix the vacuum cleaner, how to deal with the children, and making last-minute additions to the grocery list of things to bring home for dinner. He has done nothing all day but run up the company's phone bill

$8.40 on his personal home calls.

7. The practical joker—All his life he has yearned to put gin in the office water cooler, and now is his chance. He sneaks down and buys a bottle of juniper juice, but when he comes back upstairs his courage fails him—and he hides the bottle in his desk.

8. The open rebel—He walks boldly into the boss's empty office, lies down on his couch and takes an hour's nap—just to prove to everybody he's a brave non-conformist. He spends the rest of the day wondering where he'll be working next week.

9. The tale-bearer—This cloak and dagger character goes about seeing what office misdeeds he can note and tell the boss about later. What he doesn't realize is that the boss is smart enough to figure that a guy who has time for all that spying couldn't have been very busy himself.

10. The rest of the herd—With no one to impress by acting, they buckle down hard, get all their day's work done by 4:30 p. m., and sneak home early.

Knowledge Is Power

By George Sokolsky

Admiral Hyman Rickover has assumed the role of leadership in the battle for the revision of educational methods in this country and his impact is already being felt. It may be surprising that this thin, soft voiced naval officer, who specializes in engineering and builds submarines, should devote himself so assiduously to education.

It is, however, obvious that a man who gives himself to the service of his country and who achieves such distinction that he could make a fortune for himself in private industry, would seek for more than a mere perpetuation of the status quo because it is the line of least resistance. Admiral Rickover, speaking at the 90th anniversary of Roosevelt Hospital in New York City, said:

"...The initial advantage possessed by nations who invent science and technology is not retained unless these nations stay ahead of the rest in technological efficiency. Their head start is easily lost, chiefly, because it breeds in people a sense of superiority which leads to complacency and slackening of effort. England, for example, lost her head start as the first country to introduce industrialization be-

This is so important at this moment in our history. We have grown proud. We have assumed that we possess a superiority over other peoples. We believed that for some reason or other, we, as a people, were capable of a quality called "know-how" which others did not have.

But we have suddenly discovered that Soviet Russia has achieved an astonishingly progressive position in the sciences and in engineering. We have witnessed the spectacle of West Germany forging ahead to a brilliant industrial leadership in Western Europe. Red China boasts, perhaps untruthfully, that it will by-pass Great Britain, the original site of the Industrial Revolution.

Certainly in the 1920's and even 1930's, Japan pushed ahead so rapidly in textiles, that Nippon challenged the world and this may well have been one cause for World War II. This experience cannot be overlooked in a study of this subject.

The issue that Admiral Rickover raised is not one of manufacturing but of education. It is possible for a nation to provide statistics which establish that it has a high literacy rate. But have the people learned to think, to think independently and originally? Intelligence is not cheaply bought nor does a Phi Beta Kappa key prove intelligence although it may prove diligence.

Admiral Rickover explains this is another way, referring to pre-World War I Germany:

"The principal reason why Germany rapidly closed the gap in industrial productivity between herself and England was Germany's better understanding that a country's industrial—and hence political—position in the world depends on ability to increase and utilize scientific knowledge. She drew the correct inference that education must therefore be made widely available; that private initiative is insufficient and schools and universities must be, at least in part, supported out of taxes. She further recognized the key role of the professions. By offering them generous rewards, she insured that men of first-rate ability were drawn into the professions."

England, at this same period, took a different position, according to Admiral Rickover: "...Education in England was a private or eleemosynary enterprise; a good education could be had only in expensive and socially exclusive private boarding schools and colleges. The poor received almost no education; the middle class an inferior one."

Germany forged ahead, as Japan forged ahead, following German methods, as Soviet Russia is forging ahead now, for in Soviet Russia not only is education, up to the highest degree, free but the students are paid a salary for studying.

It used to be said that knowledge is power. It is not only knowledge that is power, but the capacity to relate knowledge to ideas and to imagination that matters. For what is most necessary in this day is intelligence.

Admiral Rickover applied intelligence to designing and building the atomic submarine; he is now applying that same intelligence to reforming our educational system so that it can be of greater service not only to the individual student but to the nation and mankind.

The World Today

By James Marlow

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower's December trip to three continents may give a morale boost to some of the nine nations he visits. But it's doubtful there will be any other effect.

In a sense, Eisenhower is making a return visit. Without exception the top or almost top man from each of the nine countries on his schedule has been here in recent years, a number in recent months.

The nine are France, Italy, Morocco, Greece, Turkey, Iran, Pakistan, Afghanistan, India.

The President's personality, going back to World War II days, has been of the kind that could quiet some troubled waters and get people to pull together.

He probably hopes his trip to Europe, Africa and Asia will have some of that affect, plus giving his hosts a sense of American goodwill. Beyond that, it's hard to see anything his trip will achieve except in Paris.

There on Dec. 19, at the end of his trip, he sits down for a three-day meeting with President Charles de Gaulle, British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan and German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer, as a preliminary to meeting Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev some time next year.

This meeting is supposed to provide agreement among the Allies on what they will discuss with the Soviet leader.

India will probably get the biggest lift from Eisenhower's visit.

Prime Minister Jawaharlal Nehru, who has persisted in keeping neutral between the West and communism, has fallen on troubled days with his big neighbor, Red China.

It will be comforting to the Indians to have Eisenhower reassure them they have friends in the United States. Nehru already knew that.

It's probably because he understood it well that he has for so long adopted a holler-than-thou attitude and felt free to enjoy the luxury of refusing to choose up sides.

The Moroccans have been talking of wanting the United States to pull out its military bases which were established there while Morocco was still a protectorate of France. The United States says it is willing, and details are being worked out.

Since Eisenhower isn't going there to negotiate on this problem, which takes time, he isn't likely to change anything there unless to create some goodwill toward this country.

Nor is he apt to change anything in Afghanistan which, like India and Morocco, is a neutral.

When Afghanistan's prime minister, Prince Sardar Mohammed Naim, visited Eisenhower here in October, he assured the United States Afghanistan's acceptance of large-scale Soviet aid has not altered Afghan friendship for this country.

Official opinion here at the time was that the Soviet Union was gaining slowly but surely in consolidating its economic and military influence over the neutralist kingdom in the Himalayas.

Pakistan, Iran and Turkey are linked with the United States and Britain in a Mid-East defense pact, and this year received aid of a half-billion dollars in aid from this country.

Only last weekend Khrushchev

talked of this defense organization, set up along the Soviet Union's southern border, as a joke. Nevertheless, the Soviet don't like it. It gives the pact members some feeling of strength against the Soviets.

Turkey is also linked with this country in the North Atlantic Treaty alliance, as are Greece, France, and Italy. Each has problems of its own but none is talking of leaving the alliance.

On his various stops Eisenhower may hear requests for larger American help in one way or another. There doesn't seem much he can do about that since his administration is riding hard on the economy theme for 1960.

Senator Aiken says Nixon is "far more liberal than some of his most ardent supporters." Well, if they're ardent, that's liberal enough.

Senator Aiken says "it could be a very close fight" if Nixon and Rockefeller become active candidates. If they become any more active, it could be an actual fight.

"I favor the one who has the best chance of winning the election at the time of the convention," says Senator Aiken. Apparently the senator can't see the trees for the hedge.

The American Association of Fund-Raising Council, Inc., says 30 million American women volunteer their services in raising money every year. They know charity begins at home.

Senator Keating says it might pay to have a national survey of the quality of college teaching. Well, no doubt the teachers themselves are for anything that might pay.

"Never was there a greater time, a more glorious time, to become a school teacher," says Senator Keating. Teachers, however, are getting tired of eating his words.

Two New State Departments Ready To Operate This Week

Two new state departments are created and an existing commission is revised under new laws effective this week, State Representative Ed Wallace of Pickaway County pointed out today.

The new laws are among 99 enacted by the 103rd General Assembly of Ohio at its recent session which will be effective during the week.

Effective Monday was the law creating the new State Personnel Department with a three-member Personnel Board of Review replacing the present two-member State Civil Service Commission.

The law setting up a State Department of Industrial and Economic Development became effective yesterday.

ALSO EFFECTIVE Monday was the law recreating the State Racing Commission with five members to replace the present four-member group.

Five other major laws effective Monday removed the $65 ceiling on aid for the aged and blind and revised some of the qualification requirements; increased workmen's compensation benefits;

Repealed the licensing of 14 and 15-year olds to operate motor scooters; permitted the use of funds of three state retirement systems and workmen's compensation fund for advance purchase of highway right of way and created a state scholarship fund.

And then commencing Friday, the fees of deputy registrars for issuing motor vehicle licenses will be hiked from 25 to 35 cents.

A director will head the new Personnel Department at $14,000 a year. Each of the three members of the Personnel Board of Review will receive $10,000 a year.

The new department was an outgrowth of a personnel and management study conducted by the Ohio Legislative Service Commission before the session of the legislature.

A DIRECTOR has been appointed to head the new Industrial and Economic Development Department at $15,000 a year. The new department. It also creates an industrial and economic development of the state by coordinating its activities with other state departments. It also creates an interim commission on education beyond the high school.

Five members have been named for the new Racing Commission, three of whom are on the present body. The new law also increases terms of the members from four to six years with terms of the original appointees staggered at two, four and six years.

The new law removing the $65 ceiling on aid for the aged and blind also reduces the Ohio residence requirement from five of last nine years to three of the last nine; deletes the citizenship requirement; eliminates the $960 a year outside income limitation on eligibility for aid; increases the maximum value of a homestead a recipient may own from $6000 to $12,000 and boosts from $300 to $500 the maximum funeral and burial expenses.

The revisions in the workmen's compensation law will boost maximum weekly benefits for injured workmen from $40.25 to $49 for temporary disability, partial disability and loss of members, permanent total disability and death benefits to dependents; increases minimum weekly benefits from $14 to $25 for temporary disability and loss of members, and from $25 to $40.25 for permanent total disability, death benefits to wholly dependent persons and for persons previously receiving permanent total benefits.

It will also hike maximum total benefits for temporary disability from $8000 to $10,750 and removes the 10-year maximum benefit period; will provide maximum death benefits for wholly dependent persons of $15,000 plus $1000 for wholly dependent surviving spouse and for each child under 18 up to three; will hike maximum death benefits for partly dependent person from $12,000 to $15,000 and boosts minimum death payments to a parent with whom employee was living from $1000 to $3000. It also makes several changes in claim procedures.

The law repealing the licensing of 14 and 15-year olds to operate motor scooters will allow licenses issued prior to last Monday to remain in effect until their expiration dates—when the child becomes 16.

TRUSTEES of the public employees, teachers and school employees retirement systems and members of the State Industrial Commission must first approve the use of any of their funds for the advance purchase of highway right-of-way.

The agreements also must be approved by the state finance director. The Highway Department will have sole and exclusive use of the property and must purchase it from the trust funds within five years at the original cost plus a percentage agreed upon at the time of original purchase with the trust funds. The trust funds can not tie up more than 10 per cent of their assets.

The law setting up a scholarship fund sets up a nine-member board,

Motor Vehicle Sales Total 121 in October

A total of 121 new motor vehicles were sold to Pickaway County residents during October, 22 more than September.

Aide to Dentist Nabbed by Police

FREMONT, Calif. (AP) — The former dental assistant of Dr. William V. Shyne was arrested Wednesday and charged with helping to hand out candy-coated purgatives to youngsters on Halloween.

Hazel Engelby, 34, was specifically charged with outraging public decency and unlawful dispensation of drugs. She denied the charges when she was booked at nearby Santa Rita.

Shyne, 40, is still sought on identical charges, which came about after the pills were placed in the trick-or-treat bags of at least 16 children Saturday night. Some of the children vomited; others came down with diarrhea.

Spaceship Bumper Equipment Urged

WASHINGTON (AP)—A government scientist today proposed a kind of bumper to protect spaceships from tiny meteors that streak through space by the millions.

Dr. Fred L. Whipple, director of the Smithsonian Institution's Astrophysical Observatory, offered this solution—put a thin second skin around the outside of the spaceship, separated from the inner skin.

Of course, he added in a report to the Office of Naval Research, this applies only for meteors considerably smaller than the thickness of the ship's skin.

If a really big meteor comes along, it's just too bad.

Dear Abby...

By Abigail VanBuren

Skip Coke and Confidences

DEAR ABBY: I am a 16-year-old girl. On my way home from school I usually stop at a gasoline station for a coke. A man who works there (he is 29) has been confiding in me. He calls me up evenings and we talk for hours. I feel very sorry for him because his wife left him for another man and he misses her and their baby. He's had a tough life, Abby, and says he thinks the world of me. I am afraid if my mother knew who I was talking to she'd have a fit. (She thinks it's a kid from school.) How can I tell him not to call me without hurting his feelings?

SIXTEEN
DEAR SIXTEEN: Simply tell him not to call you any more. Take another route home and avoid seeing him. A man of 29 who has to borrow the shoulder of a 16-year-old girl to cry on, probably has designs on the rest

Sunday School Class To Meet at Browns

Mrs. Marion's Sunday School Class of the First Methodist Church will meet at 8 p. m. Tuesday in the home of Mrs. Forrest Brown, 314 N. Court St.

Smorgasbord Set For Wednesday

Hedges Chapel will sponsor a Smorgasbord from 4:45-7:15 p. m. Wednesday at the church.

When you "fry" chicken in the oven, you'll need to use about a quarter pound of butter for basting. Roll the chicken piecer in seasoned flour and arrange in one layer in a shallow baking pan.

Some green olives left over from the party? Cut the olive meat from the pits, chop fine and add to creamstyle cottage cheese; serve with salad greens, sliced tomatoes and cucumbers for lunch.

White spots on mahogany furniture can be removed by spreading on a thick coat of vaseline and letting it stand 48 hours before wiping it off.

of her. I urge you to avoid him.

DEAR ABBY: If I ruled this country, I would lay down a federal Law stating that no mother could work until her children reach the age of 18.

In cases where the father is dead exceptions would be made, of course. But where there is a working father, the mother should be forced to stay at home and look after her children until the last ones reach adulthood. If a father can't support a family, he has no business having one in the first place. I think this Law, if enforced would cure our juvenile delinquency problem entirely. What do you think?

OLD-TIMER
DEAR OLD: I doubt it. But if it would, I'm afraid the "Medicine" would be worse than the disease. We are a free people, living in a democracy. No dictator, (thank heavens) can order an individual to WORK or to STAY HOME. And borscht will flow in the Potomac before that happens here.

DEAR ABBY: Four months ago my husband passed away after a long illness. His best friend (a bachelor) had been consoling me in my grief. I don't know what I'd done without him. We lost our heads and now I am pregnant. I am 34 and he is 50. I have three children and can't imagine how this happened because I was told I couldn't have any more children.

He claims he loves me, and will marry me later. But he says it wouldn't look right for me to get married so soon after my husband's death. If I wait a year, that will take me into February and the baby in due in March. Should I move out of town, try to talk him into marrying me now or what? Don't lecture me, Abby. I have already taken enough punishment from my own conscience.

ASHAMED

World Trade Worm Starts To Turn Now

England, France Lift Curb against Many U.S. Consumer Items

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst
NEW YORK (AP)—The world trade worm—American style—is beginning to turn.

England and France have lifted most of the controls on how much American goods they'll take, and Japan is reported ready to do the same.

This comes just as the United States was starting to talk tough about the drain on its gold reserves because of the rapid rise in imports by this country while its industrialists and farmers were being barred from many markets.

And it comes after Washington started talking about shouldering less of the foreign aid burden and expecting more of such dollars to be spent here. Abroad this is leading to fear that Americans are turning to protectionism again.

Relaxation in bars against American goods can be important to you if you are a manufacturer wanting to sell some of your goods abroad, or if you work for such a company. It's important to you if you make goods that face increasing foreign competition, or if you work for a company that does.

The turnabout from Uncle Sam's bolstering other nations' industries and currencies to measures to bolster the U. S. dollar—now selling below par in several countries—is noted with polite amusement by some Europeans.

Some of them suggest the dollar is overvalued and a devaluation would do little harm. Most Americans, from the President on down, have rejected this notion. But the prime thing for Americans just now is that England has scrapped some of its quotas and Americans can try to expand their markets there. Estimates of how much more could be sold run from 300 to 500 million dollars a year.

Some American manufacturers, however, look for little increase. The auto industry, for instance, isn't hampered any more by a limit on how many American cars the British can import—a limit that was never reached.

The real obstacles still remain: a 30 per cent tariff on U. S. cars, and once they are there they must pay—as all cars do—a 50 per cent sales tax.

Ohio Methodists To Map Campaign

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Ohio Methodist leaders will hold a training conference here next Monday in preparation for a unique evangelistic mission scheduled for Sunday, March 20.

On that date, labeled "One Great Day of Witnessing," teams of ministers will visit prospective members on Sunday morning—a time when church surveys show that 80 per cent of the American people are in their homes.

Dr. George A. Fallon, minister of the Methodist Church in Lakewood, and chairman of both the Ohio Area Methodist Council on Evangelism and the National Council on Evangelism of the denomination, will direct the workshop next Monday.

Local Scouts Recognized By State Head

Local Scouts received national recognition recently in the form of an Achievement Award for their sponsorship of the local vehicle safety check performed last May.

To commemorate the award, a handsome plaque was presented to a local Scouting representative in a meeting at Traffic Safety Committee meeting.

Joseph Bell, 581 N. Court St., represented the Scouts in receiving the plaque. John Greenan, Supervisor of Field Services for the Ohio Department of Highway Safety, made the presentation and commended the local teen-agers for their traffic safety activity.

The award was one of two such awards in the state and Ohio won more traffic safety activity awards than any other state.

THAT TRAFFIC safety activities are urgently needed is illustrated by the fact that in 1958 there were 1,812 fatalities and 76,033 injuries from traffic accidents in Ohio.

In Pickaway County there were five fatalities last year with seven already noted for 1959.

Greenan also presented the Pickaway County Traffic Safety Committee president a Certificate of Achievement to Circleville, for noteworthy performance in the National Vehicle Safety Check for Communities.

In the business session of one meeting several items were called to the attention of the safety group for corrective action.

These included vision blocking signs at a gas station south of Circleville on Route 23; a narrow bridge with curving approaches and vision blocking tree limbs over Scippo Creek on the Kingston Pike.

Need of white center lines on the Kingston Pike and teen-agers drag racing in a nearby subdivision. Letters will be sent to the proper authorities regarding these complaints.

THE MEETING closed with the showing of a movie, "The Case of Officer Hallbrand", depicting the traffic safety efforts of a police officer which terminated with his death in the line of duty.

Priest Found Married to Ex-Secretary

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP)—David P. Meyer, a Roman Catholic priest who disappeared from Hawaii eight months ago, has turned up in Phoenix, married and working for the state.

Meyer, 28, former assistant pastor of St. Anthony's Church at Wailuku, Maui, Hawaii, was found Wednesday working as a $322-a-month interviewer for the Arizona Employment Security Commission.

Meyer disappeared March 4. His car was found on a Maui Beach the same day and an air and sea search was launched. Then, on March 10, a Requiem Mass was sung for the priest at St. Anthony's.

That was the same day Meyer wed his former parish secretary, Rofina Ann Lynch, 35, in Los Angeles.

Meyer and his wife declined comment on their recent activities.

Allegiance to God

THE APOSTLES ARE ARRESTED, THROWN INTO PRISON AND MIRACULOUSLY RELEASED

Scripture—Acts 5:17-42.

By NEWMAN CAMPBELL
IN A PREVIOUS lesson we were told of the apostles' healing of many sick persons in Jerusalem and also from cities nearby, whose relatives and friends brought them from their homes to be made whole.—Acts
5:12-16.

Peter and John were arrested and examined by the Sanhedrin,
and warned to give up speaking and teaching in the name of Jesus.

They refused and the apostles
continued their God-given activities, which "created more excitement among the common people, and the Sadducean leaders of the chief-priestly families, swooped down on the whole band of apostles and locked them up overnight in a common prison. Next day they intended to take more drastic steps than they had taken on the previous occasion."

—F. F. Bruce in Peloubet's
Select Notes.
"But the angel of the Lord
by night opened the prison doors, and brought them forth,
and said, Go, stand and speak in the temple to the people all the words of this life."—Acts 5:19-20.

"Then Peter and the other
apostles answered and said,
We ought to obey God rather than men. The God of our fathers raised up Jesus whom ye slew and hanged on a tree. Him hath God exalted . . . to be a Prince and a Saviour, for to give repentance to Israel, and forgiveness of sins. And we are witnesses of these things; and so is also the Holy Ghost, whom God hath given to them that obey Him."—Acts 5:27-32.

"When they heard that, they were cut to the heart, and took counsel to slay them."—Acts 5: 33.
"Then stood there up one in the council, a Pharisee, named Gamaliel, a doctor of the law, had in reputation among all the people, and commanded to put the apostles forth a little space;
and said unto them, Ye men of Israel, take heed to yourselves
what ye intend to do as touching these men.

"For before these days rose up Theudas, boasting himself to be somebody; to whom a number of men, about 400, joined themselves: who was slain; and all, as many as obeyed him,
were scattered, and brought to nought. After this man rose up
Judas of Galilee in the days of

MEMORY VERSE

"We ought to obey God rather than men."—Acts 5:29.

They obeyed, entering into the temple "early in the morning, and taught. But the high priest came, and they that were
with him, and called the council together, and all the senate of the children of Israel, and sent to the prison to have them brought.

"But when the officers came,
and found them not in the prison, they returned, and told,
saying, The prison truly found we shut with all safety, and the keepers standing without before the doors; but when we had opened, we found no man within."—Acts 5:21-23.

"Then came one and told them, saying, Behold, the men whom ye put in prison are standing in the temple, and teaching the people. Then went the captain with the officers, and brought them without violence; for they feared the people, lest they should have been stoned."—Acts 5:25-26.

"And when they had brought them, they set them before the council: and the high priest asked them, saying, Did not we straitly command you that ye should not teach in this name?
and, behold, ye have filled
Jerusalem with your doctrine, and intend to bring this man's blood upon us.

Tigers Ready For PV Test

Parents, Flag Events Scheduled

Circleville's grid Tigers appear ready for an invasion tonight by the Panthers of Columbus Pleasant View.

Two special occasions will precede the game. It will be Parents' Night and moms and dads of CHS players will receive due honors. The other special will be the presentation of a 49-star National Flag to the high school on behalf of the local American Legion.

The flag, which flew over the Nation's Capitol for one day, will be presented at about 7:40 p. m. The American Legion Drum and Bugle Corps will be on hand for the flag raising ceremony. The 49-star emblem will be flown tonight, then will be retired in a special glass case which also will be presented by the American Legion.

Parents will be introduced following the flag ceremony. They will take seats along the sidelines next to their player sons.

THE PARENTS' Night festivity is sponsored by the CHS Junior SOS Club and the Key Club.

The kickoff is slated for 8 p. m. as the Tigers make a bid to get their fourth win in eight starts. It marks the first appearance here by Pleasant View, a new school and the newest member of the South Central Ohio League.

To date it has been a rugged season for the Panthers who have not won a game, including four straight losses in the SCOL.

All the Tigers took part in a light workout here last night, including injured Archie Ward and Gary Vandemark who remain on the doubtful list. If Ward and Vandemark do not play, it probably will be Garold Dade, Pat Rooney and Chuck McDowell filling in. All the underclassmen have been starters at one time or another during the season and are fast becoming grid veterans, a long with Fullback Gary Cook.

On the line, the picture appears a little brighter injury-wise. Ready for the tussle are Ends Jake Bailey, Dick Warner, Leo Moats and Alex Cook. The tackle spot should be solid with Dan Leonhardt, Dave Huffer and John Williams.

A hand injury still plagues Guard Irving Ellis, but it shouldn't keep him out of the lineup. The slack will be taken up by capable Dave Hicks and Harold Arledge. At center will be Linden Gibson and Steve Helwagen.

The remaining backfield assignments will go to Quarterback Dave Smith and Fullback Larry Hannahs, the team's leading scorer.

Bucks Expect To Up Average To .500 Level

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Ohio State's up- and down Buckeyes, who haven't been over .500 all season, are expected to break into the upper bracket Saturday as they meet Indiana's Hoosiers.

Each team goes into the Western Conference fray with a 3-3 record, but the Bucks are seven-point favorites over the invaders despite the fact Indiana has a huge edge in statistics.

Back in 1951, Coach Woody Hayes' first year with the Bucks, Ohio was a solid three-touchdown favorite — but Indiana authored the season's biggest upset, 32-10. Woody has triumphed seven straight times since then, scoring all the way from 20 to 56 points while doing it.

Last Saturday's rousing victory over Michigan State, while Indiana was bowing to Northwestern, moved the Bucks into the role of favorite for Saturday's set. A new-found aerial attack, with novice quarterback Tom Matte firing, gives Ohio its edge.

A year ago the Bucks passed only 63 times in nine games, completing 27 for 504 yards and two touchdowns—while racking up 22 touchdowns on the ground.

River Oil, Orient and VFW Gain Opening Cage Loop Wins

Orient Farmers' Exchange, Veterans of Foreign Wars and River Oil earned wins in opening games of the Circleville Independent Basketball League at the local Coliseum last night.

Orient, establishing itself as one of the top teams in the league, bested Barr's All-Stars, 74-46. The Orient team is composed of former Scioto Twp. cagers.

VFW, one of the top teams in the loop last year, gained a narrow 54-47 decision over Amanda.

River Oil, with a lot of new names in its lineup, tripped Williamsport, 60-47. The Oilers got off to a slow start, but finished strong to earn the label of being a top loop contender again this season.

Orient placed three men in

One-Eyed QB Eyes Rose Bowl

1946 Firecracker May Echo on Jan. 1

SEATTLE (AP)—The echo of a firecracker that exploded in 1946 may be heard this winter in the Rose Bowl — if one-eyed quarterback Bob Schloredt keeps the Washington Huskies rolling at their present pace.

Schloredt has perfect vision in his right eye. The sight of the left eye was all but destroyed when the firecracker shattered a bottle and a fragment of glass struck 6-year-old Bobby Schloredt.

He has grown into something of a firecracker himself. Washington has lost only one game — to Southern California — in seven starts this year and Schloredt lighted the fuse in all the victories but the first.

Bob Hivner was the starting quarterback when Washington opened against Colorado. Schloredt appeared mainly as a punter and his 50-yard kicks kept Washington from embarrassment. Before the game ended Hivner broke a finger and the one-eyed boy from Gresham, Ore., inherited the job as chief driver of the Husky team.

"Too much is being made of Schloredt's handicap," said one of his coaches. "It's really no handicap. He's a complete football player. Take a look at the records."

The blond, 6-foot, 195-pound junior has completed 27 passes in 48 attempts and lost not a one by interception. Four went for touchdowns. Running the option play out of the Washington split-T he has carried the ball 74 times for 116 net yards.

Washington is regarded at present as the leading contender for the Western bid to the Rose Bowl game Jan. 1. Southern California is not eligible. Oregon's record is identical with Washington's but the Huskies won when the two collided.

Before it can lay claim to the bowl bid, Washington still must conquer Oregon State, California and Washington State.

Kingston Tops Adelphi, 47-30

Kingston opened its 1959-60 junior high basketball season with a 47-30 victory over host Adelphi.

Joe Streitenberger led the Redskins to their initial win with a 20-point surge. Kingston doubled the score on its opponent in the first quarter, 8-4.

At halftime, the Redskins held a 21-8 lead and rolled to a 35-17 margin at the third period mark. Hettinger was top man for Adelphi with 11 points.

Kingston — Nichols 3-2-8; Streitenberger 9-2-20; Kelley 4-0-8; J. DeLong 1-1-3; Vollmar 3-0-6; D. DeLong 1-0-2; totals: 21-3-47.

Adelphi — Nungester 3-2-8; Bode 1-0-2; Jenkins 2-0-4; Hettinger 5-1-11; Koonitz 1-3-5; totals: 12-6-30.

Referees — Smith and Fry.

double figure scoring as Delbert Neff's 19 points led the way. Dickie Melvin, one of the top scorers in the county high school league last season, collected 14 and Terry Little had 11. Lyle with nine and Archer with seven paced Barr's.

Eddie Tomlinson and Jack Young led the way for VFW with 16 and 15 points respectively, along with 10 by Hoover. Loy was high for the Amanda five with 18. River Oil played the entire game with five men. Huff paced the winners' attack with 20 points, assisted by Hummel and Williamson with 15 each.

Three cagers carried the scoring burden for Williamsport. Metzger tallied 14 points, Hutchinson had 12 and Timberlake hit for 10.

Three more games at the coliseum next Thursday lists Williamsport vs. Yinglings, Orient vs. River Oil and VFW vs. Barr's All-Stars. The tests start at 7, 8 and 9 p. m.

26 Collegiate Grid Tilts on Ohio Schedule

Wooster-Muskingum Battle To Highlight Menu This Weekend

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—There is action galore on all fronts for Ohio's collegiate football teams this weekend.

Wooster battles Muskingum in a feature of a 26-game program, biggest grid Saturday of the season.

The Scots, leading the 14-member Ohio Conference, must get by Muskingum to capture the loop title. If Wooster (4-0) loses, it forfeits the top spot to Heidelberg (5-1), which has completed conference play.

Ohio State (3-3), trying to put two victories together for the first time this season, entertains formidable Indiana. The Buckeyes need a win to keep their slim Big Ten title hopes alive.

Bowling Green, atop the statewide standings with a perfect 6-0 record and undisputed leader in the Mid-American Conference race, goes against Southern Illinois.

Ohio University, second in the MAC, figures to beat Marshall. If the Bobcats win, they can deadlock for the crown by beating the B-G Falcons Nov. 21 at Athens.

John Carroll (5-0), the Buckeye State's only other unbeaten, untied team, can wrap up the Presidents' Conference with a victory over Western Reserve.

In other big ones, Dayton, hoping to snap a six-game losing streak, tangles with Detroit, Cincinnati journeys to Tulsa, and Ohio Wesleyan, with an outside chance to tie for the Ohio Conference championship, takes on rugged Wittenberg.

The complete schedule:

Big Ten—Indiana at Ohio State. Mid-American Conference — Toledo at Miami, Kent State at Western Michigan, Ohio University at Marshall.

Ohio Conference—Muskingum at Wooster, Oberlin at Capital, Wittenberg at Ohio Wesleyan, Hiram at Kenyon, Denison at Akron.

Missouri Valley—Cincinnati at Tulsa. Presidents' Conference —John Carroll at Western Reserve, Case Tech at Allegheny.

Circleville Rotarians Hear About India, Dalai Lama

"India is a land of contrast. You cannot generalize about India." That was the statement of the Rev. Charles Warren, missionary, who spoke to the Circleville Rotary Club at noon yesterday in the Elks Home.

The Rev. Warren and his family have just returned from India where they were stationed at Mussoorie, the present home in exile of the Dalai Lama of Tibet.

He described the flight of the Dalai Lama from Tibet after the Chinese Communists made life in the remote Himalaya Mountain country unbearable.

The Rev. Warren told of the contrasts of India, where jet planes fly overhead, but ox carts are used for more than half the transportation of goods.

The Indians are building up steel production, some with the help of Russia, but 80 per cent of the people of India are illiterate. The Indian government is making great strides in education, he said. By 1965 all Indian children will be in school.

HE SAID his mission in India is to bring the Gospel to the people of India and Tibet. He described his work with the people.

The Rev. Warren said that the Asian is extremely sensitive about

New Electronic Lung Perfected By British Team

LONDON (AP) — A new electronic lung capable of replacing the more complicated iron lung was reported by British scientists today. It has been under development for seven years.

It was built by two doctors—pathologist Ronald Welch and anesthetist James Rochford—and a medical technician, Derek Winks. It has been christened the "Barnet Ventilator" after the Barnet group of hospitals north of London where it was made.

The new electronic lung weighs 56 pounds and can run for 20 hours on built-in batteries. Instead of being encased in a box like structure, as with the iron lung, patients are linked to the new instrument by two plastic tubes.

The lung has been used in 3,000 clinical cases, Dr. Rochford said. Cadets at the U. S. Air Force Academy are called "Falcons".

Meany Backs Rail Unions

AFL-CIO Chief Sees Anti-Labor Pattern

CHICAGO (AP) — President George Meany of the AFL-CIO has pledged full and complete support of the nation's railroad unions in their fight with the carriers over featherbedding charges.

"You are not in this battle alone," he told an estimated 3,000 cheering rail union leaders and rank-and-file workers at a rally Thursday night billed as labor's answer to the railroads' charges.

The nation's railroads served notice on their unions last Monday that they want to eliminate certain railroad jobs they consider unnecessary.

The formal proposals, which will be negotiated during pending contract talks, followed a series of railroad newspaper advertisements charging that the work agreements governing railroad work are antiquated and cost the carriers an unnecessary 500 million dollars a year.

The heads or other officers of the 21 rail unions attended the rally. Demonstrators paraded through the auditorium with placards that accused management of a "brainwashing campaign" against their workers.

Meany said he sees a parallel between the railroad dispute and the steel strike, saying, "It was known for a long time in the steel dispute that a strike was coming."

He accused the railroads of using a high-powered publicity campaign to discredit their workers in advance of negotiations "and render impotent the trade union movement."

"This is one battle in the overall war against American labor. There seems to be a determination by big business to break down the trade union movement. The fight against the railroad unions is a fight against all American labor," he said.

Thug's 'Gun' Proves To Be Spigot Handle

CLEVELAND (AP) — A Cleveland shop owner, believing the man in the back seat of his car was holding a gun to his back, drove around for two hours Thursday before subduing his captor.

The gun turned out to be the handle from a water faucet.

Neither Anthony J. Russo, 40, nor his woman companion, Mrs. Anna Mae Kleinfeld, 34, was injured.

In nearby Willoughby, police held a man who identified himself as Douglas W. McMeans, 29, of Trinity, Ala.

Russo told police McMeans purchased a suit at his shop on Euclid Ave. and then asked the shopkeeper if he would drive him home. Russo agreed.

En route, Russo stopped to pick up Mrs. Kleinfeld, a friend he had promised to drive downtown.

At this point, McMeans, in the back seat, pressed the faucet handle into his back. Russo said, and threatened to kill both him and Mrs. Kleinfeld if they didn't take him where he wanted.

After driving to Willoughby, Russo said he needed gas. When the car stopped, the shopkeeper jumped into the back seat. With help from the gas station attendant, McMeans was subdued.

New Yorker Is Handed Stiff Penalty; Sheriff Gets Car

Leonard Posner, 22, New York N. Y., was placed on five years probation Wednesday in Pickaway County Common Pleas Court.

Posner changed his plea of innocent to guilty on charges of illegal possession of narcotics.

Stiff terms of probation were issued Posner. He is not to use or have narcotics in his possession unless for medical reasons and administered by a registered physician.

He was committed to Lexington Hospital, a Kentucky hospital for treatment of narcotics users, and is to remain there until hospital officials believe he is cured.

IF POSNER leaves the hospital before he is given a "clean bill of health", his act of leaving will be considered a violation of his probation.

Posner is not to leave the continental United States unless he has the approval of the local court. He is presently awaiting transportation to Kentucky by County Sheriff Charles H. Radcliff.

Posner's automobile, a 1959 Oldsmobile convertible, was placed in County possession and the title was awarded the County Sheriff's Department for its use.

State law allows counties to assume ownership of motor vehicles used in committing a crime. Sentencing Judge William Ammer said he believed the Sheriff's Department needed the auto more than any other county department.

Posner was arrested in July by the Sheriff's Department along with a companion, Lemuel Carter, alias Charles Matthews, in Posner's convertible near Tarleton.

Both men seemed under the influence of narcotics. The day following their arrest, Deputy Sheriff Dwight Radcliff found packages of heroin in the car plus other items with heroin traces on them.

POSNER AND Carter were placed under $50,000 bond in Circleville Municipal Court, the highest bond ever set in the county court.

Both men were indicted for illegal possession of narcotics by the special session of the April term of the County Grand Jury, which met August 24.

Carter was convicted of the charge by a common pleas court petit jury several weeks ago. He was sentenced to two to 15 years in the Ohio State Penitentiary, Columbus.

Judge Ammer said Carter's cohort, Posner, was placed on probation because he only had one previous narcotics offense on record.

Carter had two narcotics and two larceny offenses on record. He said that if New York police and court officials had properly supervised Posner the first time he was placed on probation he wouldn't be here today.

Judge Ammer also criticized the lenient in a narcotics law in New York, while Ohio is proud of having the stiffest narcotic laws in the nation.

POSNER was warned by the court that if he violated any of the terms of his probation he wouldn't get a second chance.

Posner returned here from New York, where he had departed after meeting his bond. His original $50,000 bond was reduced to $15,000.

He was represented by Harry Margulis, Ashville, and Tom A. Renick, 114 1/2 N. Court St. Margulis plead for the court's mercy on Posner stating his parents had died when the lad was young leaving him considerable money.

He said that since Posner's inheritance his friends had taken advantage of him and his loneliness. Margulis asked for another chance for Posner. The native New Yorker also was represented by a Mr. Ginsberg, a New York attorney.

Firm Claims Thousands Paid For 'Plugs' on TV, in Press

WASHINGTON (AP)—A publicity man for the Hess Bros. department store in Allentown, Pa., says the firm spent thousands of dollars to get "plugs" for the store in television, radio and newspaper columns.

The assertion came from Max Levine, who said that public relations firms were paid to make such arrangements.

Levine testified Thursday before the House subcommittee investigating TV quiz show fixing.

Without giving details, Levine singled out NBC's television programs "Today" featuring Dave Garroway and the "Tonight" show and the CBS Garry Moore and "Person-to-Person" programs.

Levine said columnists who mentioned the store included Bob Considine of the Hearst Syndicate, Stanton Delaplane of the McNaught Syndicate, Earl Wilson of the Hall Syndicate, and Hal Boyle of The Associated Press.

Kennedy Strikes California Gold

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Sen. John F. Kennedy struck political gold in four days of prospecting in California.

Top Democratic leaders, including Gov. Edmund G. (Pat) Brown, generally agree about that today.

But his very success sharpens the dilemma that now confronts the Massachusetts senator. Should he enter the winner-take-all California primary next June and go for its glittering 81 votes in the Democratic presidential nominating convention?

The question pivots on another: Is he strong enough to beat Brown?

Some California Democrats say he is. Others are dubious. Kennedy himself said he would be "reluctant" to enter the primary. This, in spite of the compliments echoing here as Kennedy headed into Oregon today.

"He had a big success," said Brown. "I admire him very much."

But the governor said in an interview it has not caused him to reassess his own position. He says almost all the party leaders in the state want him to go to the convention as its "favorite son."

"A highly successful trip," said State Chairman William Munnell. "He made many, many friends in California."

"The most effective campaigning he's ever done in the state," said Paul Ziffren, national committeeman.

Kennedy drew big crowds at almost every stop. They grew visibly warmer as he spoke. The receptions at the University of California at Los Angeles and the University of Southern California were little short of spectacular.

At UCLA, 1,900 people filled every seat of the auditorium. Hundreds milled around outside. When he emerged, a student called out, "come back again and speak to the 1,000 who couldn't get in."

Without advance publicity from the campus newspaper, and speaking in the afternoon well after classroom hours, Kennedy filled almost as big an auditorium at USC. "I'm still a Republican," a pretty co-ed told him, "but I think you're marvelous."

At the fund-raising Jefferson-Jackson day dinner, extra tables had to be put up. The tariff was $100 a plate. Kennedy didn't start delivering the main speech until after 11 p.m.—but got an ovation. Sitting in the audiences, and listening to the word-of-mouth afterward, a correspondent discovered two things:

1. Women get starry-eyed over the boyish-looking Bostonian. They either sat looking mesmerized as he spoke or murmured, "Terrific. Cute. Wonderful."

2. His youthful appearance may be his greatest handicap.

"He looks awfully young. Is he really 42?" people commented.

After this experience, why would Kennedy be "reluctant" to enter the California primary? Brown listed two reasons.

"If he comes in," the governor said, "Hubert Humphrey almost certainly would have to come in."

He said the Minnesota senator has "considerable strength" in the Democratic clubs in California.

"Also, even if he won, it might be a Pyrrhic victory." (Pyrrhus was a Greek king who won a battle but lost so many troops it almost finished him.) "It would be a tough fight and the wounds wouldn't be healed by the time of the election," Brown said.

There is still a third consideration.

Californians say Brown is popular. The primary comes June 7, almost on the eve of the national convention. If Kennedy lost in California, the psychological impact could very well kill his chances.

Negro Minister Leads

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — A Negro minister who teaches at Knoxville College led in a five-way race for a seat on the city school board in Thursday's election.

The Rev. Frank R. Gordon polled 4,158 votes and will meet the incumbent, Robert Ray.

2 Jets Scramble; So Do 144 Eggs

CLEVELAND (AP) — Two jet planes and 144 eggs. Mix them and what do you get?

Twelve dozen broken eggs. That's what happened Thursday when the jets, streaking out from Youngstown Air Force Base on a false alarm to aid a bomber, broke the sound barrier. The sonic boom sprayed East Side homes and suburbs and caused the eggs to tumble off the shelves at a poultry market.

2 Fliers, Trucker Die as Jet Crashes

TACOMA, Wash. (AP)—A Navy jet training plane faltered on a takeoff from nearby McChord Air Force Base Thursday and side-slipped to a fiery end in a base parking lot. Three men were killed.

The dead were Marine Lt. Clis. Charles E. Kollman, 39, and John Skorch, 41, both attached to the Continental Air Defense Command, Colorado Springs, Colo., and John H. Lundeen, 28, a Seattle truck driver whose moving vehicle was hit by flying debris.

Kollman, from New Matamoros, Ohio, and Skorch, from Taconite, William L. Bigger, 20, of Blakes-Minn., were en route from McChord to Colorado Springs.

Stiff Federal Law Viewed as Not Enough

WASHINGTON (AP)—Dr. Frank Stanton, president of the Columbia Broadcasting System, said today that the broadcasting industry must itself shoulder the job of correcting the ills revealed by TV scandals.

As the windup witness before a House subcommittee investigating television quiz shows and other practices, Stanton declared: "We believe that legislation is no cure-all for these ills and that the primary responsibility lies with the broadcasting industry itself. CBS is moving forward in that conviction."

Stanton did not go all the way with the position taken earlier by Robert E. Kintner, president of the National Broadcasting Co., who advocated enactment of legislation making it a federal crime to rig TV quiz programs.

He told the subcommittee that while such a step might be desirable, legislation of itself is not a sure preventative "as is proven by the continuation of crime despite stringent criminal laws."

Stanton's testimony also reinforced the CBS policy placed in effect last month banning all big-money quiz and giveaway shows from the network.

"We were forced to the conclusion that we could never be sure about these programs as presently conceived," he testified. "There is always the danger that these programs may be rigged in one way or another."

Stanton said he was completely unaware of irregularities in CBS quiz shows until August of last year.

"When gossip about quiz shows in general came to my attention, I was assured by our television network people that these shows were completely above criticism of this kind," the CBS chief said. "With benefit of hindsight, it is now clear that I should have gone further."

Stanton said CBS, which already has moved against what it termed misleading practices such as canned laughter and applause, now is preparing to go even farther in this direction.

He said it is also giving much thought to advertising commercials.

Five of the subcommittee's nine members took issue with the scope of Kintner's proposed new law. Any legislation, they said, should go much farther and should strike at finangling and dishonesty in every phase of the business.

Typical of their comment in separate interviews was the reaction of Rep. Walter Rogers (D-Tex.).

"There should be a penalty on anybody who perpetrates a fraud on the airwaves, and that includes advertising," Rogers said.

Evelyn Rudie's Jaunt Is Studied by Police

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Was 9-year-old Evelyn Rudie's cross-country jet flight a runaway or a publicity stunt?

Los Angeles police will try to learn the answer when she returns from Washington, Police Chief William H. Parker said Thursday. He said the young actress will be questioned by a juvenile officer.

A city ordinance makes it a misdemeanor to give police a false report.

Community Fund 'Over the Top'

The 1959 Pickaway County Community Fund campaign is a complete success!

New total collections, announced today by campaign chairman Robert Burton, show total money collected to date to be $31,970, or $1,970 more than the $30,000 goal.

In making the announcement, Burton heaped praise on county residents and volunteer workers for putting the campaign "over the top" for the fourth consecutive year.

The community fund supports the county-wide activities of the Red Cross, Salvation Army, Girl Scouts, Boy Scouts and Youth Canteen.

Attainment of the goal assures continued operation of these vital agencies throughout 1960.

BUDGET FOR the five agencies for 1960 is $30,000. Of that total $14,670 will go to the Red Cross, $4,200 to the Boy Scouts, $3,850 to the Youth Canteen, $3,500 to the Salvation Army and $3,000 to the Girl Scouts.

The campaign was headed by Burton. Division captains were James Carr, Industrial; Ed Ebert, Business; Charles Walters, County; T. D. Harmon, Special Groups, and Mrs. Walter Heine and Mrs. L. S. Mader Jr., Residential.

Publicity was handled by Richard Farmer; Preston Cook was in charge of materials; Gordon Fraser was training chairman.

Officers of the Pickaway County Community Fund are Mrs. Karl Mason, president; L. D. Varble, vice president; E. G. Grigg, secretary, and Eugene Wilson, treasurer.

Homeless Boy Fools Police; He Is Actually a She, Age 20

GOLDEN, Colo. (AP) — A 20-year-old brunette donned feminine garb today for the first time after four months of masquerading through jails and jobs as a homeless boy.

Barbara Ann Malpass of Glenmont, N.Y., convinced prisoners and officers alike that she was Charles Richard Williams, 16, of Shoshone, Wyo. She was booked under that name at the Jefferson County Jail on Aug. 2.

"We were considering trying to place her in Boys Town, Neb." sighed Undersheriff Lew Hawley. The brown-eyed girl is 5 feet, 8 inches tall and weighs 129 pounds. In her guise as a boy, she wore her hair in a duck-tail style.

The hoax came to light when Deputy Sheriff Sam Teague, with whose family Barbara was staying after her release from jail, found an incomplete letter to the girl's parents. He determined from the letter's contents that his house guest was a girl.

"I just can't understand it," said Sheriff Art Wermuth.

"I've checked into it thoroughly and she went through the normal shakedown procedure to discover anything concealed on her person."

Wermuth said Barbara was arrested July 21 at Anderson, Ind., and told of burglarizing a Jefferson County house.

A local deputy took the girl in custody at Anderson and returned her here. When officers were unable to link her with any crimes—she was released. Because she said she had no parents, the Teague family gave her lodging.

Sheriff Wermuth said she told of running away from home earlier this year. She posed as a boy "because it was more convenient," said Wermuth.

He said Barbara's parents refused her custody.

Wermuth termed the girl a "talented artist, very intelligent."

"We think, possibly with some psychiatric help, that she will turn out all right."

Barbara is continuing to live with the Teague family.

First Cold Snap Starts To Taper Off

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The season's coldest weather and biggest snow storm gave a wintry touch to the nation's mid-section today but it appeared the worst was just about over.

Below zero temperatures and snow up to 15 inches made it feel and look like mid-winter in some northern border areas.

The effects of the storm were felt as far south as the middle Gulf region and southern Texas. Areas in extreme northern Arkansas reported snow flurries.

Northern Wisconsin and Upper Michigan bore the brunt of the snow barrage Thursday and during the night. Fifteen inches of snow covered the ground at Marquette, Mich., on Lake Superior, with nearly a foot at Wausau, Wis.

But the storm appeared losing its punch as it moved eastward, with snow diminishing.

The storm was blamed for at least seven deaths, most of them in traffic accidents.

4-H Advisory Group Alters Rules for '60

The 4-H Advisory Council met last night to consider future policies for the improvement of 4-H club work in Pickaway County.

The council made a complete revision of the 4-H honor club system for 1960. The scoring system will be changed in several ways and the new score sheets will be available later this month. The group also decided to stop picking one top club and give banners to the best six clubs in agriculture and home economics.

The future 4-H camp site was discussed with the decision to remain at Tar Hollow but to investigate possibilities of building a new camp site if necessary.

The council also recommended several policies for Mrs. Herman Hines to convey to the State 4-H Advisory Council in Columbus next week.

President of the 4-H council is Hoyt Martin. Others present at this meeting were Mrs. Herman Hines, Tony Garrett, Loring Leist, Louise Drummond, George Haughn, Mrs. Berman Wertman, Mrs. Frank Baum, Weta Mae Leist, Clarence J. Cunningham and George Hamrick.

Nurse's Favoritism

Is Understandable

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP)—No doubt about it, the four-day-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Boyer is getting more attention than the other babies in Mercy Hospital's maternity row.

His oldest sister, 19-year-old Sharon, is a junior in the hospital's school of nursing and she is assigned to the maternity department in her current training program.

Other nurses' kid her about spoiling her brother and Sharon readily admits she's a bit partial. Her new brother weighed in Tuesday at seven pounds, 14 ounces. So far, his parents haven't picked the name.

Besides Sharon and the newcomer, they have two other daughters and six other boys.

Court Finds Driver Guilty Of Intoxication

A Pickaway County Common Pleas Court petit jury yesterday convicted Ronald G. Matthews, Harrisburg, of driving a motor vehicle while under the influence of intoxicants (OMVI).

The jury reached a verdict at 12:15 p. m. after deliberating 45 minutes. This was the second case in less than a week that a precedent was set in the local court and probably in Ohio.

It was the first case in the presiding Judge William Ammer's knowledge that a person, charged with a crime, ever defended himself in a jury trial.

Judge Ammer said there are several cases where persons have defended themselves before the court, but not before a 12-member jury.

THE CHARGE of OMVI is considered a misdemeanor and therefore persons accused of such crimes are not afforded court appointed defense counsel.

Only persons under charges of felonies are furnished court appointed attorneys if they are unable to obtain any due to their financial status.

Matthews was arrested for OMVI on the night of Nov. 14, 1958. He was headed north on U. S. Route 23 when he made a left hand turn onto old Route 3 into Harrisburg.

The Matthews auto collided with a car driven south by Carl Speakman. Both men were injured, but Matthews was released from Mt. Carmel Hospital the same night of the accident.

Speakman is still disabled from the accident. Matthews refused to take any type test to determine alcohol - blood content and denied being intoxicated in testimony yesterday.

Matthews entered a plea of guilty at preliminary hearing in Circleville Municipal Court, but changed his plea to innocent before a sentence was pronounced.

ARRESTING officer, Ohio State Patrolman Raymond Smith, London Post, testified that he smelled alcohol on Matthews' breath and that he had bloodshot eyes.

Speakman, his wife, Lamar Gosard, London Post radio operator, and David Goddin, Grove City emergency squad member who took both Matthews and Speakman

to the hospital, all testified they believed Matthews was under the influence of intoxicating liquor.

Matthews put his wife on the stand who said he was not intoxicated. Matthews took the stand next and said he had stopped at a few places after work and had several drinks.

He said he then came home and ate dinner before leaving his home a little after 9 p. m.

Egg Throwing Continues

Two more cases of vandalism with eggs were reported to city police yesterday and today.

Donald Johnson, 113 N. Scioto St., said eggs were thrown on his car which was parked on E. Union St.

E. J. Borden, owner of the Culigan Water Conditioning Service at 225 S. Scioto St., said several eggs were splattered on the front of his building.

A number of such vandalism have been reported here the last few days. The police are making an all-out investigation to apprehend the guilty party.

Driver Appears

On Two Charges

Stanley W. Costlow, 25, Lockbourne, was cited into Circleville Municipal Court today to face two charges.

Costlow was arrested by the sheriff's department on accusations of driving under the influence of intoxicants and using fictitious auto registration.

On the first charge Costlow was fined $100 and costs, sentenced to three days in jail and had his driver's license suspended for six months. He was fined $50 and costs on the second count.

TWO MOTORISTS arrested by the State Highway Patrol were: Malcolm Randall, 19, Route 3, Port Clinton; $15 and costs for speeding at 65 miles per hour in a 50 mile zone.

Eduard M. Lustig, 54, Greenhills; $10 and costs for crossing a yellow line.

Ohio Couple Hopes To Get British Baby

CRESTVIEW (AP) — Mr. and Mrs. Max Thrum tuned in a radio newscast and a story from London telling of an English couple that hoped to give away their expected baby caught their attention.

It seemed just the answer to plans they had been making to adopt a playmate for their 3-year-old daughter, Sandra Gail, especially since the British couple wanted Americans to take their child.

Thrum placed a transatlantic phone call to The Associated Press bureau at London and obtained the address of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Winkley, the couple looking for American foster parents for their yet unborn baby. A call to the Winkleys followed.

"We didn't reach any definite agreement," Thrum said. "But they seemed to be fine people and we do hope we can work it out to get the baby. They told us we were the first persons to contact them."

Thrum said he didn't plan to go to London, but would correspond with the Winkleys and try to reach an adoption agreement.

"We aren't interested in paying a king's ransom, of course. We aren't rich. But if the Winkleys' offer is bona fide, we certainly hope we can get the baby," Thrum said.

Thrum, 36, operates a music store and a monument firm. Originally from Fremont, Ohio, he has lived in Crestview the past 18 years. Mrs. Thrum, 38, has a 21-year-old son of a previous marriage.

2 Organizations Help Elderly on Cut-Rate Drugs

WASHINGTON (AP)—Two organizations for retired people said today they are making a cut-rate drug service available to all Americans over 65 years of age—an estimated 15 million persons.

Dr. Ethel Percy Andrus, president of the National Retired Teachers Assn. and the American Assn. of Retired Persons, said this means the aged can obtain medication and pharmaceuticals at a minimum of 25 per cent below regular retail prices if they order from nonprofit drug buying service.

Dr. Andrus called upon pharmacists to extend similar price reductions to persons over 65. She said this would follow the lead taken by the American Medical Assn. in recommending that member physicians reduce fees for patients over 65 living on modest incomes.

It is estimated that about 60 million buffalo roamed the North American continent in the 18th Century.

Earnings of Columbus & Southern Ohio Electric Co. for the 12-month period ended September 30, were $2.29 per common share. This compares with earnings per share of $2.07 at the same time a year ago.

Third quarter earnings improved over 1958. The two-month affect of the recent rate increase in Columbus and Franklin County brought per share earnings for the quarter to 66 cents compared with 45 cents earned in 1958. For the first time quarterly earnings have equaled those of 1957. At the end of the third quarter, the electric company was serving an average of 270,338 customers in 23 central and southern Ohio counties.

New automobile and new truck dealers of Pickaway County and 29 other counties in this area participated in an important regional meeting, sponsored by the Ohio Automobile Dealers Assn. at The Neil House, Columbus, yesterday. Attending from Circleville was Ned Harden, NADA area chairman.

Ohio System Of Free Press Is Outlined

COLUMBIA, Mo. (AP)—State Sen. Charles A. Mosher of Ohio outlined the free access to all levels of state government enjoyed by the Ohio press in a speech today at the second annual Freedom of Information Conference at the University of Missouri.

Mosher, four-term member of the Ohio Senate and publisher of the Oberlin News-Tribune, said Ohio's government officials, legislators, state and local agencies, and all units of government at all levels work on the principle of "public business is the public's business."

He credited the Ohio Legislative Correspondents Assn. for honorable and responsible operation of that group, which determines those newspapers who may have special privileges in covering the Ohio Senate, House of Representatives and other state offices in the Capitol Building.

Open committee meetings and votes in the Ohio General Assembly were cited as an indication of Ohio's "open door" policy of giving the public the fullest possible report of proceedings.

The established tradition of conducting state legislative business in public is commendable, Mosher said, and such secrecy as exists in some states and even in the U.S. Congress would be unthinkable in Ohio today.

Blind Toledo Man Issued Driver Permit

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP)—A case in Municipal Court today provided a sad commentary on Ohio's method of renewing drivers' licenses.

Wednesday night, Patrolman William Freer arrested 51-year-old Arthur Magrum in a bus station on a charge of being drunk and disorderly.

Checking Magrum's identification, the patrolman found cards showing him to be a member of several societies for the blind and a driver's license issued here last Aug. 20.

Magrum, appearing before Judge George N. Kiroff, said he passed his driver's test in 1953, shortly before he became totally blind in one eye and lost nearly all of his sight in the other. Sitting only eight feet from the judge, Magrum said the jurist appeared as a dim shadow from his left eye.

Magrum said he never had trouble getting his license renewed. The last time he applied, he said, he was carrying his white cane, the mark of a blind person.

Magrum said he does not own a car and uses the license only for identification.

Ad Censorship Will Hurt

Business expenses incurred in the normal conduct of any enterprise have traditionally been construed in America as including all outlays necessary to the continued existence and prosperity of the undertaking. If certain proposals now before the Internal Revenue Service are permitted to stand, this will no longer be true.

Under the new regulations, it will not be possible for an American business or industry, threatened with extinction by cheap imports, to deduct as business expenses the cost of informing the public—or even its own employees—that it is faced with ruin as a result of government policies.

Private enterprise can protect itself against government-imposed adversities only out of profits, says the IRS in a series of continuing rulings which will seriously hamper businesses, trade organizations and anti-bureaucratic activities generally. As is usual in the case of administrative interpretations of nuclear legislation the IRS has liberally interpreted a 1919 statute barring for business deductions "sums of money expended for lobbying purposes, the promotion or defeat of legislation, the exploitation of propaganda, including advertising other than trade advertising, and contributions for campaign expenses."

Under the regulations which are slated to go into effect shortly, the income tax bureau has ruled that it will not allow outlays for advertisements explaining a business group's position on any public matter directly affecting the organization, nor will it permit deductions for dues to trade organizations which act as agents in promoting the aims of their clients.

If these regulations are permitted to stand, the Internal Revenue Service will become an overseer of all business advertising, possessing within its devious channels the sole authority to decide what is "lobbying" and what is "trade advertising."

Mice Do Play if Boss Away

NEW YORK (AP) — Many a captain of industry often brags, "I like to feel I have my office so well organized it runs just as efficiently when I'm away as when I'm in it."

Actually, of course, he secretly prefers to feel just the opposite—that without the magic of his presence and touch of personal authority the whole place tends to dissolve into chaos.

Well, just what does happen when illness or a necessary business trip temporarily removes the head of the firm from his usual scene of command? How do the office mice play when the boss is away?

Here are a few typical characters you can probably observe in your own office:

1. The chief of staff—He spends half an hour going around the office bawling everyone out. Then he retires to his own office and spends the rest of the day sailing paper airplanes around the room and dreaming about how nice life would be if he were always the boss.
2. The boss's secretary — She groans inwardly. She knows all the ambitious little subordinates will show up with a fistful of letters for her to type—so the boss, on his return, will know how hard they worked while he was away.

3. The gossip—He goes around spreading the rumor that the boss isn't away on a business trip at all, but is probably larking in Las Vegas with the wife of one of his neighbors.

4. The bookie—He tours the office making bets on whether the boss will have bags under his eyes his first day back on the job.

5. The two-Martini, two-hour-lunch man—He has four Martinis and a four-hour lunch, on the theory that a fellow should work twice as hard when the boss is away.

6. The homebody—At 9:15 he phones his wife. At 5:15 in the afternoon he is still helping her worry about how to fix the vacuum cleaner, how to deal with the children, and making last-minute additions to the grocery list of things to bring home for dinner. He has done nothing all day but run up the company's phone bill

Complex as they have become, certainly Congress never intended to include in its income tax laws the creation of an advertising censorship board. But that is what the IRS must become if it is to enforce its interpretations of the law.

Every citizen has a stake in the outcome of debate on this matter, because the drain on industrial profits—should industry be required to pay for public service and promotional advertising out of income after taxes—would produce a severe jolt to the economy. Most of the concerns which would be affected pay the maximum 52 per cent corporate tax rate.

Thus for every dollar now spent on a wide range of industrial advertising, two dollars will be required under the Internal Revenue plan. And of course the consumer pays for follies of the government which result in higher industrial costs.

On either count—heavier taxation of industry and all profit making organizations, or government control of an important segment of private enterprise—there is nothing to be gained but further progress toward national socialism. Only Congress has the power to change the wording of its legislation, but many agencies have the assumed power to interpret as they see fit.

When it becomes necessary for Congress to restate laws already on the books to keep intact legislative intent, that is part of the legislative responsibility. Such a need has arisen as a result of a new interpretation of a 40-year-old law.

Knowledge Is Power

Admiral Hyman Rickover has assumed the role of leadership in the battle for the revision of educational methods in this country and his impact is already being felt. It may be surprising that this thin, soft voiced naval officer, who specializes in engineering and builds submarines, should devote himself so assiduously to education.

It is, however, obvious that a man who gives himself to the service of his country and who achieves such distinction that he could make a fortune for himself in private industry, would seek for more than a mere perpetuation of the status quo because it is the line of least resistance. Admiral Rickover, speaking at the 90th anniversary of Roosevelt Hospital in New York City, said:

"...The initial advantage possessed by nations who invent science and technology is not retained unless these nations stay ahead of the rest in technological efficiency. Their head start is easily lost, chiefly, because it breeds in people a sense of superiority which leads to complacency and slackening of effort. England, for example, lost her head start as the first country to introduce industrialization be-

This is so important at this moment in our history. We have grown proud. We have assumed that we possess a superiority over other peoples. We believed that for some reason or other, we, as a people, were capable of a quality called "know-how" which others did not have.

But we have suddenly discovered that Soviet Russia has achieved an astonishingly progressive position in the sciences and in engineering. We have witnessed the spectacle of West Germany forging ahead to a brilliant industrial leadership in Western Europe. Red China boasts, perhaps untruthfully, that it will by-pass Great Britain, the original site of the Industrial Revolution.

Certainly in the 1920's and even 1930's, Japan pushed ahead so rapidly in textiles, that Nippon challenged the world and this may well have been one cause for World War II. This experience cannot be overlooked in a study of this subject.

The issue that Admiral Rickover raised is not one of manufacturing but of education. It is possible for a nation to provide statistics which establish that it has a high literacy rate. But have the people learned to think, to think independently and originally? Intelligence is not cheaply bought nor does a Phi Beta Kappa key prove intelligence although it may prove diligence.

Admiral Rickover explains this is another way, referring to pre-World War I Germany:

"The principal reason why Germany rapidly closed the gap in industrial productivity be-

28.40 on his personal home calls. 7. The practical joker—All his life he has yearned to put gin in the office water cooler, and now is his chance. He sneaks down and buys a bottle of juniper juice, but when he comes back upstairs his courage fails him—and he hides the bottle in his desk.

8. The open rebel—He walks boldly into the boss's empty office, lies down on his couch and takes an hour's nap—just to prove to everybody he's a brave non-conformist. He spends the rest of the day wondering where he'll be working next week.

9. The tale-bearer—This cloak and dagger character goes about seeing what office misdeeds he can note and tell the boss about later. What he doesn't realize is that the boss is smart enough to figure that a guy who has time for all that spying couldn't have been very busy himself.

10. The rest of the herd—With no one to impress by acting, they buckle down hard, get all their day's work done by 4:30 p. m., and sneak home early.

The causes, however, apparently are quite different. At least the possible psychological causes are. Internal strabismus—you probably call it crossed eyes—appears to be caused sometimes by a chronic state of anger.

On the other hand, external strabismus apparently often comes from resignation and apathy. This, at least, is the theory advanced by some scientists.

Actually, it is a logical assumption. Inasmuch as the eyes turn outward when you are asleep, it is natural to assume that relaxation makes them converge.

Cross-eyed children are known to be destructive, as a rule, and this, too, tends to bear out the theory.

The Better Vision Institute reports the case of a neurotic woman who was found to have an internal squint.

The squint was reduced considerably by surgery, but she was advised that she would have to have another operation within three months in order to complete the cure.

However, three days before the scheduled second operation she reported that the cross-eyed condition had almost disappeared.

A check of her emotional attitude was made. This study found that she had been working in a department store under a superior she thoroughly disliked. The superior had been transferred to another department just before her

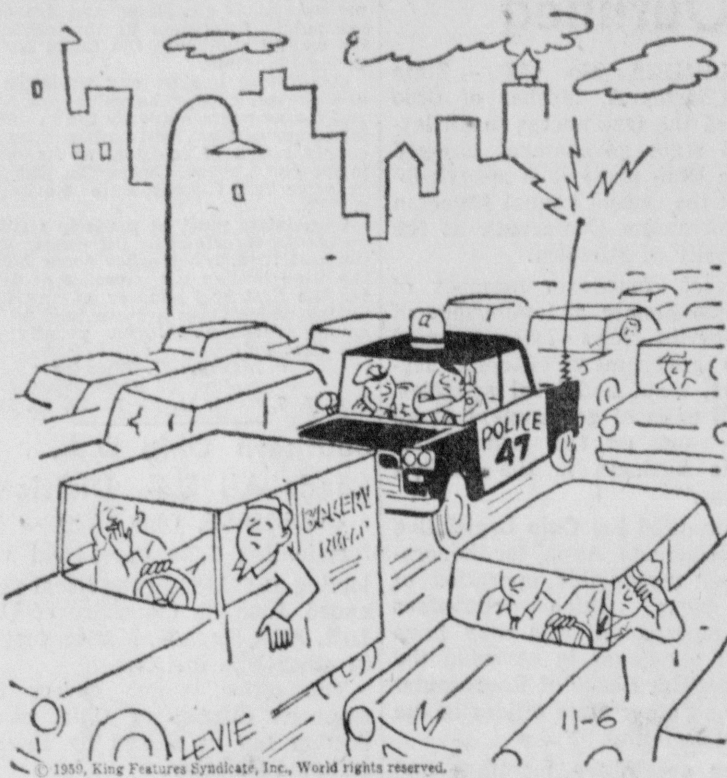

England, at this same period, took a different position, according to Admiral Rickover: "...Education in England was a private or eleemosynary enterprise; a good education could be had only in expensive and socially exclusive private boarding schools and colleges. The poor received almost no education; the middle class an inferior one."

Germany forged ahead, as Japan forged ahead, following German methods, as Soviet Russia is forging ahead now, for in Soviet Russia not only is education, up to the highest degree, free but the students are paid a salary for studying.

It used to be said that knowledge is power. It is not only knowledge that is power, but the capacity to relate knowledge to ideas and to imagination that matters. For what is most necessary in this day is intelligence.

Admiral Rickover applied intelligence to designing and building the atomic submarine; he is now applying that same intelligence to reforming our educational system so that it can be of greater service not only to the individual student but to the nation and mankind.

The World Today

By James Marlow

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower's December trip to three continents may give a morale boost to some of the nine nations he visits. But it's doubtful there will be any other effect.

In a sense, Eisenhower is making a return visit. Without exception the top or almost top man from each of the nine countries on his schedule has been here in recent years, a number in recent months.

The nine are France, Italy, Morocco, Greece, Turkey, Iran, Pakistan, Afghanistan, India.

The President's personality, going back to World War II days, has been of the kind that could quiet some troubled waters and get people to put together.

He probably hopes his trip to Europe, Africa and Asia will have some of that affect, plus giving his hosts a sense of American goodwill. Beyond that, it's hard to see anything his trip will achieve except in Paris.

There on Dec. 19, at the end of his trip, he sits down for a three-day meeting with President Charles de Gaulle, British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan and German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer, as a preliminary to meeting Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev some time next year.

This meeting is supposed to provide agreement among the Allies on what they will discuss with the Soviet leader.

India will probably get the biggest lift from Eisenhower's visit. Prime Minister Jawaharlal Nehru, who has persisted in keeping neutral between the West and communism, has fallen on troubled days with his big neighbor, Red China.

It will be comforting to the Indians to have Eisenhower reassure them they have friends in the United States. Nehru already knew that.

It's probably because he understood it well that he has for so long adopted a holier-than-thou attitude and felt free to enjoy the luxury of refusing to choose up sides.

The Moroccans have been talking of wanting the United States to pull out its military bases which were established there while Morocco was still a protectorate of France. The United States says it is willing, and details are being worked out.

Since Eisenhower isn't going there to negotiate on this problem, which takes time, he isn't likely to change anything there unless to create some goodwill toward this country.

Nor is he apt to change anything in Afghanistan which, like India and Morocco, is a neutral.

When Afghanistan's prime minister, Prince Sardar Mohammed Naim, visited Eisenhower here in October, he assured the United States Afghanistan's acceptance of large-scale Soviet aid has not altered Afghan friendship for this country.

Official opinion here at the time was that the Soviet Union was gaining slowly but surely in consolidating its economic and military influence over the neutralist kingdom in the Himalayas.

Pakistan, Iran and Turkey are linked with the United States and Britain in a Mid-East defense pact, and this year received almost a half-billion dollars in aid from this country.

Only last weekend Khrushchev

talked of this defense organization, set up along the Soviet Union's southern border, as a joke. Nevertheless, the Soviet don't like it. It gives the pact members some feeling of strength against the Soviets.

Turkey is also linked with this country in the North Atlantic Treaty alliance, as are Greece, France, and Italy. Each has problems of its own but none is talking of leaving the alliance.

On his various stops Eisenhower may hear requests for larger American help in one way or another. There doesn't seem much he can do about that since his administration is riding hard on the economy theme for 1960.

Senator Aiken says Nixon is "far more liberal than some of his most ardent supporters." Well, if they're ardent, that's liberal enough.

Senator Aiken says "it could be a very close fight" if Nixon and Rockefeller become active candidates. If they become any more active, it could be an actual fight.

"I favor the one who has the best chance of winning the election at the time of the convention," says Senator Aiken. Apparently the senator can't see the trees for the hedge.

Senator Keating says it might pay to have a national survey of the quality of college teaching. Well, no doubt the teachers themselves are for anything that might pay.

"Never was there a greater time, a more glorious time, to become a school teacher," says Senator Keating. Teachers, however, are getting tired of eating his words.

Two New State Departments Ready To Operate This Week

Two new state departments are created and an existing commission is revised under new laws effective this week, State Representative Ed Wallace of Pickaway County pointed out today.

The new laws are among 99 enacted by the 103rd General Assembly of Ohio at its recent session which will be effective during the week.

Effective Monday was the law creating the new State Personnel Department with a three-member Personnel Board of Review replacing the present two-member State Civil Service Commission.

The law setting up a State Department of Industrial and Economic Development became effective yesterday.

ALSO EFFECTIVE Monday was the law recreating the State Racing Commission with five members to replace the present four-member group.

Five other major laws effective Monday removed the $65 ceiling on aid for the aged and blind and revised some of the qualification requirements; increased workmen's compensation benefits;

Repealed the licensing of 14 and 15-year olds to operate motor scooters; permitted the use of funds of three state retirement systems and workmen's compensation fund for advance purchase of highway right of way and created a state scholarship fund.

And then commencing Friday, the fees of deputy registrars for issuing motor vehicle licenses will be hiked from 25 to 35 cents.

A director will head the new Personnel Department at $14,000 a year. Each of the three members of the Personnel Board of Review will receive $10,000 a year.

The new department was an outgrowth of a personnel and management study conducted by the Ohio Legislative Service Commission before the session of the legislature.

A DIRECTOR has been appointed to head the new Industrial and Economic Development Department at $15,000 a year. The new departments. It also creates an economic and industrial development of the state by coordinating its activities with other state departments. It also creates an interim commission on education beyond the high school.

Five members have been named for the new Racing Commission, three of whom are on the present body. The new law also increases terms of the members from four to six years with terms of the original appointees staggered at two, four and six years.

The new law removing the $65 ceiling on aid for the aged and blind also reduces the Ohio residence requirement from five of last nine years to three of the last nine; deletes the citizenship requirement; eliminates the $960 a year outside income limitation on eligibility for aid; increases the maximum value of a homestead a recipient may own from $6000 to $12,000 and boosts from $300 to $500 the maximum funeral and burial expenses.

The revisions in the workmen's compensation law will boost maximum weekly benefits for injured workmen from $40.25 to $49 for temporary disability, partial disability and loss of members, permanent total disability and death benefits to dependents; increases minimum weekly benefits from $14 to $25 for temporary disability and loss of members, and from $25 to $40.25 for permanent total disability, death benefits to wholly dependent persons and for persons previously receiving permanent total benefits.

It will also hike maximum total benefits for temporary disability from $8000 to $10,750 and removes the 10-year maximum benefit period; will provide maximum death benefits for wholly dependent persons of $15,000 plus $1000 for wholly dependent surviving spouse and for each child under 18 up to three; will hike maximum death benefits for partly dependent person from $12,000 to $15,000 and boosts minimum death payments to a parent with whom employee was living from $1000 to $3000. It also makes several changes in claim procedures.

The law repealing the licensing of 14 and 15-year olds to operate motor scooters will allow licenses issued prior to last Monday to remain in effect until their expiration dates—when the child becomes 16.

TRUSTEES of the public employees, teachers and school employees retirement systems and members of the State Industrial Commission must first approve the use of any of their funds for the advance purchase of highway right-of-way.

The agreements also must be approved by the state finance director. The Highway Department will have sole and exclusive use of the property and must purchase it from the trust funds within five years at the original cost plus a percentage agreed upon at the time of original purchase with the trust funds. The trust funds cannot tie up more than 10 per cent of their assets.

The law setting up a scholarship fund sets up a nine-member board,

Motor Vehicle Sales Total 121 in October

A total of 121 new motor vehicles were sold to Pickaway County residents during October, 22 more than September.

The surge in new sales is due to the October release of new motor vehicles by the automobile companies.

Of the 121 total were 12 house trailers and 109 cars and trucks. A total of 962 motor vehicles, both new and used, changed hands during October, 62 more than in the previous month.

AUTOMOTIVE mortgages and liens totaled 472 or 30 more than in September and cancellations of mortgages and liens numbered 387 or 11 less than in the previous month.

Ford maintained the lead in new motor vehicles sold with 32, nine more than its closest competitor, Chevrolet, with 23 sold.

This was the second straight month for Ford to hold the lead. Ford sales rose light during October and Chevrolet gained two.

Plymouth and Oldsmobile held third with nine autos apiece. This is the second consecutive month that these two agencies tied.

Other motor vehicles sold were: Dodge and Buick, 5; Pontiac and Rambler, 4; Cadillac, Renault and International, 3; Mercury and Studebaker, 2, and Chrysler, Edsel and Triumph, one.

appointed by the governor to administer it. The legislature appropriated $500,000 to the fund for the current biennium.

The law provides one-year scholarships may be granted with a second year available if the student's scholastic record meets board standards. Amount of the scholarships will be based on need.

Aide to Dentist Nabbed by Police

FREMONT, Calif. (AP) — The former dental assistant of Dr. William V. Shyne was arrested Wednesday and charged with helping to hand out candy-coated purgatives to youngsters on Halloween.

Hazel Engelby, 34, was specifically charged with outraging public decency and unlawful dispensation of drugs. She denied the charges when she was booked at nearby Santa Rita.

Shyne, 40, is still sought on identical charges, which came about after the pills were placed in the trick-or-treat bags of at least 16 children Saturday night. Some of the children vomited; others came down with diarrhea.

Dear Abby...

By Abigail VanBuren

Skip Coke and Confidences

DEAR ABBY: I am a 16-year-old girl. On my way home from school I usually stop at a gasoline station for a coke. A man who works there (he is 29) has been confiding in me. He calls me up evenings and we talk for hours. I feel very sorry for him because his wife left him for another man and he misses her and their baby. He's had a tough life, Abby, and says he thinks the world of me. I am afraid if my mother knew who I was talking to she'd have a fit. (She thinks it's a kid from school.) How can I tell him not to call me without hurting his feelings?

SIXTEEN: Simply tell him not to call you any more. Take another route home and avoid seeing him. A man of 29 who has to borrow the shoulder of a 16-year-old girl to cry on, probably has designs on the rest of her. I urge you to avoid him.

Sunday School Class To Meet at Browns

Mrs. Marion's Sunday School Class of the First Methodist Church will meet at 8 p. m. Tuesday in the home of Mrs. Forrest Brown, 314 N. Court St.

Smorgasbord Set For Wednesday

When you "fry" chicken in the oven, you'll need to use about a quarter pound of butter for basting. Roll the chicken piecer in seasoned flour and arrange it one layer in a shallow baking pan.

Some green olives left over from the party? Cut the olive meat from the pits, chop fine and add to creamstyle cottage cheese; serve with salad greens, sliced tomatoes and cucumbers for lunch.

Wife Preservers

White spots on mahogany furniture can be removed by spreading on a thick coat of Vaseline and letting it stand 48 hours before wiping it off.

World Trade Worm Starts To Turn Now

England, France Lift Curb against Many U.S. Consumer Items

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst
NEW YORK (AP)—The world trade worm—American style—is beginning to turn.

England and France have lifted most of the controls on how much American goods they'll take, and Japan is reported ready to do the same.

This comes just as the United States was starting to talk tough about the drain on its gold reserves because of the rapid rise in imports by this country while its industrialists and farmers were being barred from many markets.

And it comes after Washington started talking about shouldering less of the foreign aid burden and expecting more of such dollars to be spent here. Abroad this is leading to fear that Americans are turning to protectionism again.

Relaxation in bars against American goods can be important to you if you are a manufacturer wanting to sell some of your goods abroad, or if you work for such a company. It's important to you if you make goods that face increasing foreign competition, or if you work for a company that does.

The turnaround from Uncle Sam's bolstering other nations' industries and currencies to measures to bolster the U. S. dollar—now selling below par in several countries—is noted with polite amusement by some Europeans.

Some of them suggest the dollar is overvalued and a devaluation would do little harm. Most Americans, from the President on down, have rejected this notion.

But the prime thing for Americans just now is that England has scrapped some of its quotas and Americans can try to expand their markets there. Estimates of how much more could be sold run from 300 to 500 million dollars a year.

Some American manufacturers, however, look for little increase. The auto industry, for instance, isn't hampered any more by a limit on how many American cars the British can import—a limit that was never reached.

The real obstacles still remain: a 30 per cent tariff on U. S. cars, and once they are there they must pay—as all cars do—a 50 per cent sales tax.

Ohio Methodists To Map Campaign

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Ohio Methodist leaders will hold a training conference here next Monday in preparation for a unique evangelistic mission scheduled for Sunday, March 20.

On that date, labeled "One Great Day of Witnessing," teams of ministers will visit prospective members on Sunday morning—a time when church surveys show that 80 per cent of the American people are in their homes.

Dr. George A. Fallon, minister of the Methodist Church in Lakewood, and chairman of both the Ohio Area Methodist Council on Evangelism and the National Council on Evangelism of the denomination, will direct the workshop next Monday.

Local Scouts Recognized By State Head

Local Scouts received national recognition recently in the form of an Achievement Award for their sponsorship of the local vehicle safety check performed last May.

To commemorate the award, a handsome plaque was presented to a local Scouting representative in a meeting at Traffic Safety Committee meeting.

Joseph Bell, 581 N. Court St., represented the Scouts in receiving the plaque. John Greenan, Supervisor of Field Services for the Ohio Department of Highway Safety, made the presentation and commended the local teen-agers for their traffic safety activity.

The award was one of two state awards in the state and Ohio won more traffic safety activity awards than any other state.

THAT TRAFFIC safety activities are urgently needed is illustrated by the fact that in 1958 there were 1,812 fatalities and 76,033 injuries from traffic accidents in Ohio.

In Pickaway County there were five fatalities last year with seven already noted for 1959.

Greenan also presented the Pickaway County Traffic Safety Committee president a Certificate of Achievement to Circleville, for noteworthy performance in the National Vehicle Safety Check for Communities.

In the business session of one meeting several items were called to the attention of the safety group for corrective action.

These included vision blocking signs at a gas station south of Circleville on Route 23; a narrow bridge with curving approaches and vision blocking tree limbs over Scippo Creek on the Kingston Pike.

Need of white center lines on the Kingston Pike and teen-agers drag racing in a nearby subdivision. Letters will be sent to the proper authorities regarding these complaints.

THE MEETING closed with the showing of a movie, "The Case of Officer Hallbrand", depicting the traffic safety efforts of a police officer which terminated with his death in the line of duty.

Priest Found Married to Ex-Secretary

PHOENIX, ARIZ. (AP)—David P. Meyer, a Roman Catholic priest who disappeared from Hawaii eight months ago, has turned up in Phoenix, married and working for the state.

Meyer, 28, former assistant pastor of St. Anthony's Church at Wailuku, Maui, Hawaii, was found Wednesday working as a $322-a-month interviewer for the Arizona Employment Security Commission.

Meyer disappeared March 4. His car was found on a Maui Beach the same day and an air and sea search was launched. Then, on March 10, a Requiem Mass was sung for the priest at St. Anthony's.

That was the same day Meyer wed his former parish secretary, Rofina Ann Lynch, 35, in Los Angeles.

Meyer and his wife declined comment on their recent activities.

Allegiance to God

THE APOSTLES ARE ARRESTED, THROWN INTO PRISON AND MIRACULOUSLY RELEASED

Scripture—Acts 5:17-42.

By NEWMAN CAMPBELL

IN A PREVIOUS lesson we were told of the apostles' healing of many sick persons in Jerusalem and also from cities
nearby, whose relatives and friends brought them from their homes to be made whole.—Acts
5:12-16.

Peter and John were arrested
and examined by the Sanhedrin,
and warned to give up speaking and teaching in the name of Jesus.

They refused and the apostles
continued their God-given activities, which "created more excitement among the common people, and the Sadducean leaders of the Sanhedrin, the partisans of the chief-priestly families, swooped down on the whole band of apostles and locked them up overnight in a common prison. Next day
they intended to take more
"trastive steps than they had taken on the previous occasion."
—F. F. Bruce in Peloubet's
Select Notes.

"But the angel of the Lord
by night opened the prison
doors, and brought them forth,
and said, Go, stand and speak
in the temple to the people all the words of this life."—Acts 5:19-20.

"Then Peter and the other
apostles answered and said,
We ought to obey God rather than men. The God of our fathers raised up Jesus whom ye
slew and hanged on a tree, Him
hath God exalted . . . to be a Prince and a Saviour, for to give repentance to Israel, and forgiveness of sins. And we are witnesses of these things; and so is also the Holy Ghost, whom God hath given to them that obey Him."—Acts 5:27-32.

"When they heard that, they were cut to the heart, and took counsel to slay them."—Acts 5: 33.

"Then stood there up one in the council, a Pharisee, named Gamaliel, a doctor of the law,
had in reputation among all the people, and commanded to put
the apostles forth a little space;
and said unto them, Ye men of Israel, take heed to yourselves
what ye intend to do as touching these men.

"For before these days rose
up Theudas, boasting himself to be somebody; to whom a number of men, about 400, joined themselves: who was slain; and
all, as many as obeyed him,
were scattered, and brought to nought. After this man rose up
Judas of Galilee in the days of

MEMORY VERSE

"We ought to obey God rather than men."—Acts 5:29.

They obeyed, entering into the temple "early in the morning, and taught. But the high priest came, and they that were
with him, and called the council together, and all the senate
of the children of Israel, and sent to the prison to have them
brought.

"But when the officers came,
and found them not in the prison, they returned, and told,
saying, The prison truly found
we shut with all safety, and the keepers standing without before
the doors: but when we had opened, we found no man with-
in."—Acts 5:21-23.

"Then came one and told them, saying, Behold, the men whom ye put in prison are standing in the temple, and teaching the people. Then went the captain with the officers, and brought them without violence; for they feared the people, lest they should have been stoned."—Acts 5:25-26.

"And when they had brought them, they set them before the council: and the high priest asked them, saying, Did not ye straitly command you that ye should not teach in this name?
and, behold, ye have filled
Jerusalem with your doctrine,
and intend to bring this man's
blood upon us.

the taxing, and drew away much people after him; he also perished; and all, even as many as obeyed him, were dispersed.

"And now I say unto you, Refrain from these men, and let them alone; for if this counsel or this work be of men, it will come to nought: But if it be of God, ye cannot overthrow it; lest haply ye be found even to fight against God."

They agreed to this, "and when they had called the apostles, and beaten them, they commanded that they should not speak in the name of Jesus, and let them go."—Acts 5:34-40.

"And they departed from the presence of the council, rejoicing that they were counted worthy to suffer shame for His name. And daily in the temple, and in every house, they ceased not to teach and preach Jesus Christ."—Acts 5:40-42.

How many of us who study this lesson would suffer shame for the name of Jesus if we lived in the days of persecution? If all children could be trained from infancy in their homes and in their schools to obey God rather than to be tempted to wrongdoing, "juvenile delinquency" would vanish from towns and cities.

Tigers Ready For PV Test

Parents, Flag Events Scheduled

Circleville's grid Tigers appear ready for an invasion tonight by the Panthers of Columbus Pleasant View.

Two special occasions will precede the game. It will be Parents' Night and moms and dads of CHS players will receive due honors. The other special will be the presentation of a 49-star National Flag to the high school on behalf of the local American Legion.

The flag, which flew over the Nation's Capitol for one day, will be presented at about 7:40 p. m. The American Legion Drum and Bugle Corps will be on hand for the flag raising ceremony. The 49-star emblem will be flown tonight, then will be retired in a special glass case which also will be presented by the American Legion.

Parents will be introduced following the flag ceremony. They will take seats along the sidelines next to their player sons.

THE PARENTS' Night festivity is sponsored by the CHS Junior SOS Club and the Key Club.

The kickoff is slated for 8 p. m. as the Tigers make a bid to get their fourth win in eight starts. It marks the first appearance here by Pleasant View, a new school and the newest member of the South Central Ohio League.

To date it has been a rugged season for the Panthers who have not won a game, including four straight losses in the SCOL.

All the Tigers took part in a light workout here last night, including injured Archie Ward and Gary Vandemark who remain on the doubtful list. If Ward and Vandemark do not play, it probably will be Garold Dade, Pat Rooney and Chuck McDowell filling in. All the underclassmen have been starters at one time or another during the season and are fast becoming grid veterans, a long with Fullback Gary Cook.

On the line, the picture appears a little brighter injury-wise. Ready for the tussle are Ends Jake Bailey, Dick Warner, Leo Moats and Alex Cook. The tackle spot should be solid with Dan Leonard, Dave Huffer and John Williams.

A hand injury still plagues Guard Irving Ellis, but it shouldn't keep him out of the lineup. The slack will be taken up by capable Dave Hicks and Harold Arledge. At center will be Linden Gibson and Steve Helwagen.

The remaining backfield assignments will go to Quarterback Dave Smith and Fullback Larry Hanahs, the team's leading scorer.

Bucks Expect To Up Average To .500 Level

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Ohio State's up - and - down Buckeyes, who haven't been over .500 all season, are expected to break into the upper bracket Saturday as they meet Indiana's Hoosiers.

Each team goes into the Western Conference fray with a 3-3 record, but the Bucks are seven-point favorites over the invaders despite the fact Indiana has a huge edge in statistics.

Back in 1951, Coach Woody Hayes' first year with the Bucks, Ohio was a solid three-touchdown favorite — but Indiana authored the season's biggest upset, 32-10. Woody has triumphed seven straight times since then, scoring all the way from 20 to 56 points while doing it.

Last Saturday's rousing victory over Michigan State, while Indiana was bowing to Northwestern, moved the Bucks into the role of favorite for Saturday's set-to. A new-found aerial attack, with novice quarterback Tom Matte firing, gives Ohio its edge.

A year ago the Bucks passed only 63 times in nine games, completing 27 for 504 yards and two touchdowns—while racking up 22 touchdowns on the ground.

River Oil, Orient and VFW Gain Opening Cage Loop Wins

Orient Farmers' Exchange, Veterans of Foreign Wars and River Oil earned wins in opening games of the Circleville Independent Basketball League at the local Coliseum last night.

Orient, establishing itself as one of the top teams in the league, bested Barr's All-Stars, 74-46. The Orient team is composed of former Scioto Twp. cagers.

VFW, one of the top teams in the loop last year, gained a narrow 54-47 decision over Amanda.

River Oil, with a lot of new names in its lineup, tripped Williamsport, 60-47. The Oilers got off to a slow start, but finished strong to earn the label of being a top loop contender again this season.

One-Eyed QB Eyes Rose Bowl

1946 Firecracker May Echo on Jan. 1

SEATTLE (AP) — The echo of a firecracker that exploded in 1946 may be heard this winter in the Rose Bowl — if one-eyed quarterback Bob Schloredt keeps the Washington Huskies rolling at their present pace.

Schloredt has perfect vision in his right eye. The sight of the left eye was all but destroyed when the firecracker shattered a bottle and a fragment of glass struck 6-year-old Bobby Schloredt.

He has grown into something of a firecracker himself. Washington has lost only one game — to Southern California — in seven starts this year and Schloredt lighted the fuse in all the victories but the first.

Bob Hivner was the starting quarterback when Washington opened against Colorado. Schloredt appeared mainly as a punter and his 50-yard kicks kept Washington from embarrassment. Before the game ended Hivner broke a finger and the one-eyed boy from Gresham, Ore., inherited the job as chief driver of the Husky team.

"Too much is being made of Schloredt's handicap," said one of his coaches. "It's really no handicap. He's a complete football player. Take a look at the records."

The blond, 6-foot, 195 - pound junior has completed 27 passes in 48 attempts and lost not a one by interception. Four went for touchdowns. Running the option play out of the Washington split-T he has carried the ball 74 times for 116 net yards.

Washington is regarded as present as the leading contender for the Western bid to the Rose Bowl game Jan. 1. Southern California is not eligible. Oregon's record is identical with Washington's but the Huskies won when the two collided.

Before it can lay claim to the bowl bid, Washington still must conquer Oregon State, California and Washington State.

Kingston Tops Adelphi, 47-30

Kingston opened its 1959-60 junior high basketball season with a 47-30 victory over host Adelphi.

Joe Streitenberger led the Redskins to their initial win with a 20-point surge. Kingston doubled the score on its opponent in the first quarter, 8-4.

At halftime, the Redskins held a 21-8 lead and rolled to a 35-17 margin at the third period mark. Hettlinger was top man for Adelphi with 11 points.

Kingston — Nichols 3-2; Streitenberger 9-2-20; Kelley 4-0-8; J. DeLong 1-1-3; Vollmar 3-0-6; D. DeLong 1-0-2; totals: 25-5-47.

Adelphi — Nungester 3-2-8; Bode 1-0-2; Jenkins 2-0-4; Hettlinger 5-1-11; Kootz 1-3-5; totals: 12-6-30.

Referees — Smith and Fry.

26 Collegiate Grid Tilts on Ohio Schedule

Wooster-Muskingum Battle To Highlight Menu This Weekend

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—There is action galore on all fronts for Ohio's collegiate football teams this weekend.

Wooster battles Muskingum in a feature of a 26-game program, biggest grid Saturday of the season.

The Scots, leading the 14-member Ohio Conference, must get by Muskingum to capture the loop title. If Wooster (4-0) loses, it forfeits the top spot to Heidelberg (5-1), which has completed conference play.

Ohio State (3-3), trying to put two victories together for the first time this season, entertains formidable Indiana. The Buckeyes need a win to keep their slim Big Ten title hopes alive.

Bowling Green, atop the state-wide standings with a perfect 6-0 record and undisputed leader in the Mid - American Conference race, goes against Southern Illinois.

Ohio University, second in the MAC, figures to beat Marshall. If the Bobcats win, they can deadlock for the crown by beating the B-G Falcons Nov. 21 at Athens.

John Carroll (5-0), the Buckeye State's only unbeaten, untied team, can wrap up the Presidents' Conference with a victory over Western Reserve.

In other big ones, Dayton, hoping to snap a six-game losing streak, tangles with Detroit, Cincinnati journeys to Tulsa, and Ohio Wesleyan, with an outside chance to tie for the Ohio Conference championship, takes on rugged Wittenberg.

The complete schedule:

Big Ten—Indiana at Ohio State. Mid-American Conference — Toledo at Miami, Kent State at Western Michigan, Ohio University at Marshall.

Ohio Conference—Muskingum at Wooster, Oberlin at Capital, Wittenberg at Ohio Wesleyan, Hiram at Kenyon, Denison at Akron.

Missouri Valley—Cincinnati at Tulsa.

Presidents' Conference —John Carroll at Western Reserve, Case Tech at Allegheny.

Grid Fete Changed to Dec. 1; Miller Pontius To Be Speaker

The annual banquet for the Circleville High School football team, sponsored by the Booster Club, will be held December 1 instead of November 24 as previously announced.

Booster president Charles Hart said the date was changed in order to obtain Miller Pontius as speaker for the event. The banquet will be held at the First Methodist Church basement, starting at 6:45 p. m.

The banquet is conducted by the Boosters each year, either in the way of a carry-in dinner or a formal banquet. It was decided to hold a banquet this season.

Tickets for the event may be obtained from officers and directors of the Booster Club. The price was set at $2.

PONTIUS, born in Circleville, started his football career here, and went on to gain All-American honors at the University of Michigan. He was fullback and captain of the 1908 Everts High team here.

The Circleville native was an all-around athlete, participating in baseball, basketball and other sports in addition to football. He played first base for the University of Michigan baseball squad and was named captain of the team in 1913.

Pontius graduated from the University of Michigan Law School and entered the security business in Chicago in 1925. In 1938 he joined F. Eberstadt and Co. In 1943 he was named syndicate manager and senior vice president of the New York firm.

His mother, Mrs. Oga E. Pontius, 92, lives at 365 E. Main St. His parents and grandparents were born in Washington Twp. and his great grandfather was one of the early settlers of Circleville.

Pontius likes to remember his "old days" in Circleville and he is quick to add that he likes to consider himself still a part of this community.

He has traveled throughout the world, including a recent trip to Russia. His address here December 1 is sure to be one of much interest to all who attend the football banquet.

John Batemen, now in his third season as an assistant football coach under Steve Sebo at Penn, worked 10 years under Lou Little at Columbia.

THESE ARE SOME OF THE NUTS, BOLTS AND SCREWS THAT WERE NOT PUT INTO THE BODY AND FRAME OF THE 1960 PLYMOUTH.

They can't loosen and rattle because they're not there. Instead, Chrysler engineers now bring you Dura-Quiet Unibody: a body and frame that's a single unit welded around 5400 times for super strength. You will feel and hear the difference the first mile you drive the Solid Plymouth for 1960.

Expect a pleasant new experience when you first try the '60 Plymouth. What happened to the "car sounds" you used to think were normal? They're gone, in the new Solid Plymouth. They were built out of it from the start. And they won't appear later to haunt you, because this car is built to stay quiet for a long, long time.

Quiet durability is only one of the advantages of solid Unibody construction. You'll notice unusual new comfort as well, and new handling ease.

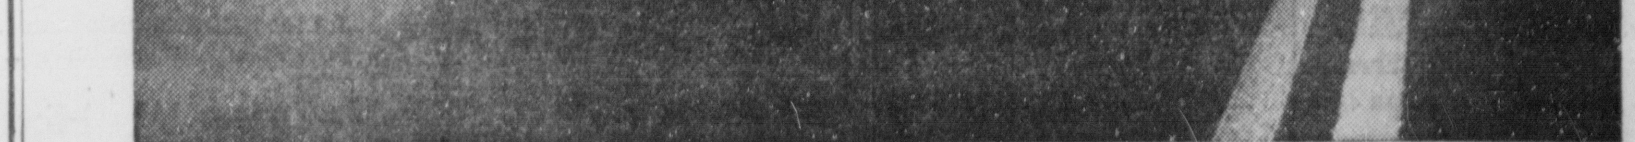

We think this is the best built, best performing car in the low-price class. Try it and see what you think.

Circleville Rotarians Hear About India, Dalai Lama

"India is a land of contrast. You cannot generalize about India." That was the statement of the Rev. Charles Warren, missionary, who spoke to the Circleville Rotary Club at noon yesterday in the Elks Home.

The Rev. Warren and his family have just returned from India where they were stationed at Mussoorie, the present home in exile of the Dalai Lama of Tibet.

He described the flight of the Dalai Lama from Tibet after the Chinese Communists made life in the remote Himalaya Mountain country unbearable.

The Rev. Warren told of the contrasts of India, where jet planes fly overhead, but ox carts are used for more than half the transportation of goods.

The Indians are building up steel production, some with the help of Russia, but 80 per cent of the people of India are illiterate. The Indian government is making great strides in education, he said. By 1965 all Indian children will be in school.

HE SAID his mission in India is to bring the Gospel to the people of India and Tibet. He described his work with the people.

The Rev. Warren said that the Asian is extremely sensitive about

India-Pakistan Arms Pact Shunned by Nehru

NEW DELHI, India (AP) — Prime Minister Nehru today rejected suggestions of a defense alliance with Pakistan and said the Indian army can defend the nation's borders against Communist China "adequately and efficiently" if it has to.

Nehru told his monthly news conference that his firm policy is still to seek peaceful settlement of the border dispute with Peiping "just as it also is our firm policy to fight if necessary."

New Electronic Lung Perfected By British Team

LONDON (AP) — A new electronic lung capable of replacing the more complicated iron lung was reported by British scientists today. It has been under development for seven years.

It was built by two doctors—pathologist Ronald Welch and anesthetist James Rochford—and a medical technician, Derek Winks. It has been christened the "Barnet Ventilator" after the Barnet group of hospitals north of London where it was made.

The new electronic lung weighs 56 pounds and can run for 20 hours on built-in batteries. Instead of being encased in a box like structure, as with the iron lung, patients are linked to the new instrument by two plastic tubes.

The lung has been used in 3,000 clinical cases, Dr. Rochford said.

Cadets at the U. S. Air Force Academy are called "Falcons".
